

Internal Audit Unscripted: Real Conversations on Skills, Emerging Risks & the Future of Audit

Internal Audit Unscripted is your chance to hear from and connect with peers at all levels for a candid, interactive discussion on what's shaping internal audit today—and where it's going next.

We will discuss navigating challenges, building key skills, and applying best practices in areas like:

- ◆ Executive presence and leadership
- ◆ AI, fraud detection, cybersecurity, and privacy
- ◆ Career growth, communication, and influence
- ◆ Emerging risks and shifting expectations

Whether you're new to audit or bring years of experience, this session is all about learning from each other, sharing what works, and asking the questions that matter - and getting real answers.

No slides. No scripts. Just real talk—and real insights.

Step away from the slides and step into the conversation.
