

1.2

From Hype to Controls: AI, Privacy, and the Cloud in the Internal Auditor's Crosshairs

The cloud is now the default launchpad for artificial-intelligence and the riskiest place for sensitive data to hide in plain sight. This session shows internal auditors how to spot and test the hidden control gaps that emerge when Artificial Intelligence, cloud-native services (AWS/Azure/GCP), and data privacy laws collide.