

Attendees will hear personal stories from two experienced professionals and receive valuable tips on “Growing and Advancing Your Career,” including how to assess your current trajectory, how to set clear career goals, seeking mentorship and networking, overcoming obstacles and learning from setbacks, managing work-life balance, leveraging technology and social media, how to seek feedback, and recognizing and celebrating your successes.