

Ana Amato is the market leader for Atlanta at Protiviti, a global management consulting firm. She is passionate about leading strategic initiatives around onboarding, integration, and company culture and is also a member of the North America Quality Risk Management committee for the firm. In her client delivery capacity, she has over 20 years of experience in financial, operational, and compliance audits, process and controls, and due diligence reviews. Ana has is also a subject matter expert in enterprise risk assessments and has extensive Board reporting experience.

Born in Honduras, Ana came to the United States to attend Louisiana State University, where she attained her degree in finance. She then completed her MBA at the Goizueta Business School at Emory University where she was recognized as one of Emory University's 2019 class of 40 Under 40 Award honorees. She is graduate of the 2018 Leadership Atlanta class. She was also recognized by the Atlanta Business Chronicle's 2018 class of 40 Under 40 Award honorees and in 2021 as part of the Women of Influence honorees. She lives in Atlanta with her husband and two daughters and serves on the Governance Committee of the Board of CHRIS180 and the Executive Women of Goizueta.