Staying on top of it – evolving through times of change

This cross-industry panel with leaders from Delta Airlines, Cox Enterprises, AGCO Corporation and Voya Financial will explore both the challenges and opportunities in effectively managing internal audit functions in times of significant disruption. From daily operations to the talent agenda, we will explore real examples of how these companies are evolving. We will also discuss the evolving role of the “auditor” and share specific actions for attendees of all ranks to consider as they plan for the future.
