

SARGON YOUTMARA

CPA

Principal

Sargon Youmara, CPA, is a principal with over 30 years of extensive experience in audit and management services. He is the global practice leader for Sarbanes-Oxley (SOX) and internal audit quality assurance reviews (QAR) within Sikich's Governance, Risk, and Compliance (GRC) consulting practice. Sargon has a deep understanding of financial reporting, project management, business process improvement, and risk management.

Sargon's expertise spans across internal and external audit, financial reporting controls, and regulatory compliance. He has successfully led numerous SOX compliance initiatives, guiding organizations through the complex requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB), the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations (COSO).

As a thought leader in audit and compliance, Sargon has developed proprietary maturity and capability assessment models to evaluate key processes against leading frameworks such as COBIT, COSO, PCAOB, and the Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA). His work has provided valuable insights that help organizations assess performance, identify improvement opportunities, strengthen internal controls, enhance governance structures, and effectively manage risk across a variety of industries
