

Nick Key is a Consultant in the Corporate Audit Department at The Coca-Cola Company, where he leads and supports finance-focused audits to ensure compliance with internal policies and SOX requirements while identifying opportunities for process improvement. In his role, he has gained exposure across a diverse range of Coca-Cola operations, including performing audits over geographic operating units, manufacturing plants, and owned subsidiaries.

Prior to joining Coca-Cola, Nick began his career at Grant Thornton LLP, where he spent three years as a Senior Audit Associate serving both public and private clients across the oil & gas services, retail, and manufacturing industries. His work primarily focused on SOX compliance and financial audits.

Nick holds a Master of Accounting from Kennesaw State University with a concentration in Audit and Advisory and is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in the state of Georgia. He is known for his positive, approachable style and clear communication and enjoys taking on team lead opportunities to continue building his leadership experience. He looks forward to continuing to grow as an auditor and taking on new challenges as his career progresses.
