

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK of ATLANTA

Julie Schoen Hower

Senior Vice President of Internal Audit

Julie Schoen Hower is Senior Vice President and Chief Audit Executive at the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta with close to 20 years of experience analyzing and optimizing business processes to improve financial and operational management capabilities, reduce risk exposure, increase compliance, and achieve strategic objectives. Prior to joining the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Julie led the internal audit team at Carter's with responsibility for Sarbanes-Oxley, IT, legal, retail, and supply chain compliance as well as a robust Enterprise Risk Management program. Julie spent 11 years with Deloitte serving clients in both audit and consulting capacities to solve strategic, operational, financial, technology, and compliance challenges. Julie has significant experience in data analytics and data visualization and interacts extensively with Board members and executive leadership.

Julie has served on The Institute of Internal Auditors – Atlanta Chapter Board of Governors since 2016 and she is the 2020 – 2021 President of the Chapter. Julie won the IIA Atlanta's top award "The Mulcahy Leadership Award" for her excellence related to the Chapter's Mentoring Program and Chief Audit Executives Roundtables.