TIM SEIGLER, CISA, CCSFP, CHQP

Audit Principal; Third Party Attestation Regional Leader & National Healthcare/HITRUST Industry Leader

EXPERIENCE

Tim Seigler is a Principal in the Third Party Attestation Practice and is currently serving as the Southeast Regional Practice Leader and National Healthcare/HITRUST Industry Leader. With more than 15 years of professional experience serving an array of clients in the healthcare, technology, financial services, and not-for-profit/higher education industries, he is responsible for the coordination and execution of BDO's third-party attestation services throughout the Southeast.

Prior to joining BDO, Tim served as a Director in the Technology Risk practice of a Big Four firm, leading and executing IT audit and third-party attestation engagements throughout the U.S. and Europe.

Tim has also served as an inspector for his prior firm's internal inspection process as well as a lead facilitator at national training events for the IT audit and third-party attestation service lines, including development of training courses and thought leadership for the practice.

Tim is an active member of the University of Georgia's MIS Advisory Board and has been a guest lecturer at the Universities of Alabama, Florida, and Georgia on IT audit topics as well as a guest speaker at local Atlanta chapter meetings for the Information Systems Audit and Control Association (ISACA) and Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA). Additionally, he currently serves a member of the Assessor Council for HITRUST.
