

Durran Dunn

An award-winning CPA, Durran has been recognized by Forbes as a Top CPA in America, A Best-In-State (GA), the AICPA as Outstanding CPA, and have received multiple 40 Under 40 awards. He brings decades of experience as a trusted advisor with a comprehensive background in both public accounting and leadership roles within industry, he combines a solutions-driven, pragmatic approach to solving business challenges. He is a licensed Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), specializing in compliance and risk advisory services for both publicly traded and privately held organizations. His expertise spans a wide range of sectors, including manufacturing, technology, media, entertainment, and healthcare.

Durran excels in providing comprehensive solutions for enterprise risk management (ERM), Sarbanes-Oxley (SOX) compliance programs, IPO readiness assessments, IT risk assessments and controls, controls rationalization/optimization, and internal audit transformation initiatives. His depth of knowledge and experience positions him as a strategic advisor to organizations navigating complex risk environments.

Durran serves on the board of directors for NABA Inc., where he further serves as Treasurer and Finance Chair. He is also a program leader and trainer with the Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA), a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) Board of Examiners (BoE) and contributes to the AICPA Foundation Scholarship & Fellowship Program. Additionally, he serves on the Georgia Society of CPAs' Accounting and Auditing Advisory Council.