

Steve Jackson
Principal, Risk, EY

Steve is a Principal in EY's Risk Consulting practice with over 20 years serving in the risk and compliance space. Steve has helped numerous clients build and maintain effective Internal Audit, Internal Control and Risk functions and navigate through periods of significant disruption. Steve regularly advises how teams can address challenges related to IA's mandate, people model, and operations, and how risk functions can stay nimble and relevant in the face of uncertainty and rapidly changing risk profiles.
