Dear Section IV Soccer All-Star,

Congratulations on your well-deserved selection to the Section IV All-Star Team. Your outstanding skills on the field have earned you the prestigious opportunity to attend an informational meeting to learn all about this year's European Soccer Tour to Spain. You will get all of the information needed to make your decision to join our tour and play soccer at the International level. We couldn't be more excited about the possibility of having you represent Section IV in Europe.

For three decades, EuroSports Network has been a bridge connecting young American soccer talents with the rich soccer heritage of Europe. We take pride in providing players like you the chance to immerse themselves in the thrill of representing the U.S.A. and New York State, both on and off the field. Our meticulously designed itineraries seamlessly blend soccer with cultural exploration, offering you a unique chance to learn from our elite coaching staff, engage in international matches, and discover new horizons.

Our past participants have consistently grown as players and individuals under the expert guidance of our coaches, returning home with enhanced skills and a broader worldview. EuroSports Network is dedicated to nurturing young soccer talents while fostering a deeper appreciation for our nation and the global community.

During this upcoming tour, you'll have the exciting opportunity to test your skills against club teams across Spain and also partake in cultural activities, sightseeing, and various enriching experiences. Our spring tour is scheduled from March 29th to April 5th, 2024, and both boys' and girls' teams will embark on this adventure to the vibrant city of Barcelona, Spain.

In our previous tours, our teams have consistently left a lasting mark in competitions against formidable opponents from Germany, Spain, Russia, Denmark, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, France, Sweden, England, Norway, Hungary, Belgium, Australia, Ireland, and the Netherlands.

For our senior players, this presents an excellent opportunity to conclude their high school careers alongside the area's finest talents, while underclassmen can use this experience to hone their skills against Europe's best, setting the stage for a promising season in the fall.
