Promise of the Messiah

Jeremiah 33

God had plans for God's beloved people in the house of Israel. God shared with the prophets that God would bring a family member of King David to bring justice to Jerusalem. God is good. God promised to bring peace and safety to God's people.

When God makes promises, God keeps promises. It might be a long time until God's promises to Israel would be kept. Until then, God would make sure there was a good king to rule the people. God would invite the priests to continue making offerings to God as a sign of their loyalty.

God would keep God's promises - one day.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

Try it At Home

If you live in a northern climate, look for signs of life during this next week. Where does God keep things alive, even though it's winter? In southern climates, how do you see that it's winter time?
