Art
Time

Change is hard for people - especially when you get older. Often kids are the ones to make the changes needed, because older people have a tough time seeing things differently.

Draw a colorful picture or write a story about a time when you needed to change the way you did something.

Josiah's Reform

2 Kings 22 & 23

RE-FORM

Once there was a king named Josiah. He was only eight years old when he became the leader of Judah. He came from a good family, and people expected him to be a good king!

He had a problem, though.

The people in his kingdom had been worshiping false gods. They had done a lot of damage to the temple, too. A priest name Hilkiyah found the old holy book, and King Josiah knew what he needed to do.

So King Josiah gathered all the people. He made promises to God that they would only worship the one true God. All the people joined with him in promising they would only worship God.

Great Big Word

Reform

Making a positive change to help people.

Fun Stuff

Maze Time!

God's people have lost the path. Help them find it again just like King Josiah.

ZIP... POW! You got it!

TICTACTOE

Nice Quote!

Change will not come if we wait for some other person, or if we wait for some other time. We are the ones we've been waiting for. We are the change that we seek.

Former Pres. Barack Obama

Try it At Home

Write down three changes you'd like to see in your household to reform the way your family does things. Bring your changes to your parents or grownups and ask them what they think!
