ACTIVE SHOOTER SITUATIONS

A KIM TURNER, LLC COURSE

Are you prepared to handle an active shooter event?

Our comprehensive course is designed specifically for public safety 9-1-1 first responders. We provide the knowledge and skills necessary to effectively coordinate with field personnel to enhance positive outcomes.

Special Guest Speaker, 9-1-1 First Responder Quenton Mullins

Quenton served as the primary dispatcher during the active-shooter event at the Walmart distribution center in Red Bluff, California on June 27, 2020. He brings decades of public-safety communications experience, specializing in crisis coordination, incident command liaison, and dispatcher training. His behind-the-scenes perspective offers invaluable insight into how communication systems shape responses in extreme situations.
