

DISPATCHER'S ROLE IN CRITICAL INCIDENTS

Course Overview:

This essential course offers a comprehensive, three-dimensional view of the role of public safety dispatchers in critical incidents. Participants will explore natural, criminal, and tactical events through the perspectives of both dispatchers and field operations. Gain the skills and knowledge needed to effectively manage high-stress situations and ensure the best possible outcomes.

Course Objectives:

- Demonstrate their understanding of critical incidents and their impact on dispatch operations
- Identify resources and officer safety considerations during critical incidents
- Analyze case studies and create checklists or resource guides for dispatch operations

Course Highlights:

- Examination of resource considerations for critical incidents, including emergency services, specialized teams, and public information
- Understanding the role of tactical dispatchers and special teams during critical incidents
- Learning activities and assessments to reinforce key concepts and develop practical skills

Who Should Attend:

This course is designed for public safety dispatchers at all levels, including line-level, leads, trainers, supervisors, managers, and directors.
