

Hanukkah 2025

Celebration of Light

December 14 — December 22

This year, instead of a large Hanukkah banquet, we will celebrate with more intimate and personal gatherings. Below is the planned schedule — times may shift slightly as we get closer.

December 14 - First Night (Sunday at Sunset)

📍 Kahl's Home — 5:00 PM

Lighting the first candle together — let the celebration begins! ✨

December 15 - Second Night (Monday)

📍 Sewell's Home — 6:00 PM

December 16 - Third Night (Tuesday)

Family Night Meal at Home

Crafts + Activities + Candle Lighting

Invite friends and neighbors to join the celebration!

December 17 - Fourth Night (Wednesday)

📍 Betts' Home — 6:00 PM

December 18 - Fifth Night (Thursday)

Family Night Meal at Home Enjoy dinner and activities

+ Invite friends and neighbors!

December 19 - Sixth Night (Friday)

Sabbath Zoom Bible Study — 7:00 PM

December 20 - Seventh Night (Sabbath)

👑 Sabbath Service — 11:30 AM

🍽️ Hanukkah Celebration Meal at the church right after!

December 21 - Eighth Night (Sunday)

📍 Bishop & General Mother Kendrick's Home
— 6:00 PM

👗 Dress code: not formal — but dress it up a bit! ❤️
Silver & Blue encouraged ❤️ ✨

🎁 Gift Exchange Bring a wrapped and marked gift
($10–15) per family member matched to gender + age group

🕯️ 🎉 Final Night Lighting & Fun!

As we gather in homes, let's honor hospitality with gratitude
— a small gesture like a treat or host gift is always welcome and appreciated.

✅ More details are coming soon for the theme of the casual Hanukkah gatherings at the Kahl's • Sewell's • Betts' homes.
