

JOY COMES IN THE MORNING

Part 10

By Pastor Shane Vaughn, First Harvest Ministries

Hebrews 12:5, 15

5 And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as unto sons: My son, do not despise the chastening of Yahweh, nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him.

15 Searching diligently, so that no one falls short of the honor of Yahweh; so that no root of bitterness grows up to cause trouble--for because of this, many are defiled.

Because of bitterness. Read it again because it's just so good. I want everybody to digest it. Many are defiled because they got bitter and they fall short of the honor of Yahweh. What does that mean? The first resurrection is the honor that will be bestowed on you if you don't fall short. There's one thing that will cause you to fall short of this honor. It is a root of bitterness.

Now a lot of people will say...well pastor Vaughn, I'm not bitter at anyone. I realize that, but I want to talk to you about someone today that you might be bitter at and you don't even realize it. His name is Yahweh, ok? There are many believers today who would never admit it, they would never dare say the words, but they are bitter at Yahweh. There's a reason for that. The first verse that was read that I didn't even plan on reading, it goes right along with it. It shows where the root of bitterness comes from.

It comes from the fact that when we get rebuked by Yahweh and we don't understand his chastisement because in our mind we're so full of pride that we don't believe we deserve any chastisement. My Lord, life is hard enough, I don't need God chastising me. And if we're not careful we will literally hold on to things that God has allowed to happen to us that seems so unfair.

But read verse 5 again. I'm going to show you where many of your roots of bitterness have come from. Read it again.

Hebrews 12:5

And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as unto sons: My son, do not despise the chastening of Yahweh, nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him.

And that's what happens. We get rebuked by Yahweh. But I want to say something. There is no one watching me right now, no one in this class who believes they deserve to get rebuked by Yahweh. There is no one watching today who believes you've done anything that's worthy of being rebuked by Yahweh, or being disciplined, or being chastised by your Father.

And so, therefore, when chastisement comes, do you know what you and I do to shift the blame off of Yahweh so we won't be mad at him? We rebuke the devil. Oh hallelujah. And there are many things that come in our lives that we brought and that the Father sent. That's where Christianity messed your minds up. Did anybody ever hear in your church growing up...all good things come from who? God. And all bad things comes from who? The devil. Do you know why?

Because we cannot comprehend in our carnal minds the bad things coming from God, being allowed by God and even worse being sent by God. I tell you, I feel more sorry for the devil than I do anybody. I do. I feel sorry for him. One day I'm going to hug his neck and say...I apologize for everything I blamed you for. (Come on wake up everybody.) If I ever meet the devil, I owe him an apology and I'm going to say...sir, 90% of what I went through I brought on myself, I'm so sorry that I rebuked you for it all.

Because there are seed. When you plant those seed, the Father sends the results into your life. He does. It's whenever you hurt someone and you don't confess it, the problem with all of us—oh Lord I didn't even want to go this direction, he's making me go to the Bible now. He always does this—messes my notes up. Hallelujah. Let's see.

The problem we all have is with something called confession. None of us like confession. We like repentance, but we don't like confession. We don't like to confess. Why? Because confession means guilt. We were taught by Christianity—there's now no condemnation—nothing to ever be guilty of—hurt people and go right on loving the Lord. I want to read to you a scripture in James 5:16. You all are not going to like this verse because this is one of the only things the Catholic Church does that I do believe in.

How many has ever said...I would never confess my sins to a priest or a man? I confess it to God. Well you're wrong. You're wrong. Didn't that sting when I said that ha! ha!? I know, we don't want to be wrong! But you're wrong. Do you know why you're wrong? Because the word is right, ok? Not because I'm telling you. The word is right. According to the word of Yahweh, you are not allowed to confess your sin to Yahweh until you confess it to a man. Did you know that? I'm going to help set you all free today if you let me do it.

Confess your sins one to another...

Confess your sins to who? One to another. When's the last time you did that saints? Oh I bring my confession to God. You're not allowed to. Hold on, I'm going to prove it to you. You're not allowed to confess your sin to Yahweh until you first confess it to man. Matthew 5:24. I'm going to show you why many of you are still under the rebuke of Yahweh—that's right, the rebuke of Yahweh. I'm going to show you why many of you've been playing with God and didn't even know you were playing with God—playing church.

What is "playing church"? When you don't do it by the word. That's playing church. When you come into church and you don't dance and worship and do it the Bible way, that's playing church. You came but you might as well went to the legion hall, no difference, it's just a get-together. Unless you do it the Bible way, you haven't done it the right way!

According to this scripture—finish that scripture. Confess your sins one to another...

...and pray for one another...

And then after you confess, your job's not to go tell what somebody confessed to you, but it is to pray now one for another that there might be a healing in that situation. Keep reading.

...so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous man is effective; powerful.

See, this is what I teach about divine healing. I do not pray for everyone's healing. Because I believe some of your sicknesses came from God. Oh yes. Do you know I can prove that in the Bible? I might as well do it. Uh, I was not planning on teaching this today. You all need to quit playing with God, trying to get healing without confessing your sins first is a mockery. That's why I don't believe in prayer lines. I don't lay hands suddenly on any man. Now I didn't plan on teaching this today, but you've got to learn...now what was that scripture earlier I wanted to read. Matthew 5:24.

Matthew 5:24

Leave your gift there before the altar, and go first and be reconciled with your brother; then come and offer your gift.

So if you're at the altar talking to the Lord, and you say Father I've come to confess my sins today, and you didn't go to the brother or sister who you sinned against, what did he say to do? Get up. Leave. Don't talk to me. Because you've done what every Christian in the world does. You've over-spiritualized this thing. You've all loved me without loving your brother and your sister. You love me while you're sitting there "faking" with one another, playing church.

He said...leave the altar, leave, get away from the altar until you have confessed your sin to a human being. Did you all know your Bible said this stuff? Here's why. The previous scripture we just read said...that you might be healed. We just read a scripture about confessing to one another, and then praying that you might be healed. So there is something blocking healing. It's unconfessed sin.

Now pastor, I don't know if I believe that. I don't care what you believe. Let's see what the Bible says. Amen. Let's go read James 5:13-16.

James 5:13-16

13 Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing psalms.

14 Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders among the called out ones; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of Yahweh.

That's where we stop normally. Call the elders of the church, anoint me with oil and pray over me.

15 And the prayer of the faith will save the sick, and Yahweh will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, they will be forgiven him.

Now there are two things required for healing. The first is the confession of sin. Evidently these apostles had a program to where if you called upon the elders of the church, the first thing they ask you...is there anyone who needs to make things right with in the body? Because it is assumed here when they anoint you that your sins would be forgiven. But now the next verse ties it altogether.

16 Confess your sins one to another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous man is effective; powerful.

So in other words, if you've not confessed your sin, you're not a righteous man, and your prayers will avail nothing. Alright. Amen. It's in the word. Confess your sin because that's going to bring me into the bitterness that I'm getting ready to teach you about. Let's read 1 Peter 3:7. I'm going to show you how that the Father is not listening to your prayer. Pastor Vaughn, why can't I get a prayer answered? Only you can answer that.

1 Peter 3:7

In the same way, you husbands, keep your marriages according to the Law, giving honor to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the pardon to life, so that your prayers may not be hindered.

If you mistreat your wife, don't pray to me or your prayers will be hindered. I'm not listening. Did you all know that the Bible says that if a man mistreats his wife he has no ability to even talk to God? Somebody say...it's tight but it's right. It's also vice versa. It's the same way. Do you know why? Because we're so busy looking for God that we don't see him in our husband and our wives. Amen.

When you lift up your voice sir, when you are cruel to your wife, and then you go get on your knees to talk to God, and you wonder why your prayers are not being answered? Ma'am, when you defy your husband and you stand up to him like you're a feminist-lesbian or a grown man yourself, and then you say...I'm going to go pray for you—please don't pray for me. Please don't because he's not listening. A woman doesn't stand up—you make yourself a lesbian when you defy your husband.

Sir, you make yourself a tyrant when you mistreat your wife. (Lord how in the world did he make me do all that this morning. Praise the Lord. It must've been needed. Hallelujah.) Somebody needs to hear it this morning. I'm trying to get the curse off your life. I'm trying to get you to quit being mad at God for the things you have created. I'm going to be honest with you, every bad thing in your life can all be traced back to some bad decisions. And yet we blame two people. The devil and God. Now we take the blame off of God and put it on the devil because we just don't want to go there.

But I want to encourage you today, get over your bitterness with God. Now brother Vaughn, what do you mean? Unresolved feelings towards God himself although we'd never admit it, and we wonder what's wrong with our health. We've prayed and prayed and prayed. What about our wealth? We've given our tithe and yet the other people across the street, they don't tithe Lord, why do they have more money than I've got?

What begins to happen is things begin to get in your heart. Now you're not going to voice it because you don't want to commit blasphemy, but it's down in there, Oh I said it's down in there. You as an overcomer will never lay anything to God's charge—only an overcomer. What does that mean? We don't charge God foolishly. We don't make him a debtor to our dumbness, to our decisions. We don't blame him for what we've done. We have to get to a point in our life where only these words come out of our mouth...Yahweh giveth and Yahweh taketh away. Blessed be the name of Yahweh. That's where overcomers live right there!

Somebody will say...well brother Vaughn, my husband or my wife... God didn't make you marry that person, you chose to do that! Blaming God for wanting to crawl into bed with someone and get married, that's on you! Oh my! (Oh Lord I don't want to do this today!) Hallelujah. That's a lesson we all need to learn—that the Lord is good. Yahweh is good. Our choices are bad. I want everyone right now—from the depths of your being, somewhere deep inside, I want everyone in this class to confess right now that Yahweh is good!

Yahweh is good !!!

Now you have to believe that. You have to know that no matter what happens in my life, much of it from my own choices, Yahweh is good. Now why am I teaching this? Folks, I'm so sorry but I've got to move on today. Brother Vaughn, why are you talking and teaching about all this today? Because last week I taught you 70 x 7 forgiveness. I taught you that you've got to become a minister of the Jubilee. Ladies and gentlemen, guess what? There is someone else that you have to give Jubilee to. Yahweh himself. Hallelujah.

There's someone else you've got to forgive. And it's Yahweh himself! He's saying...I need you to give me my Jubilee. I need to be forgiven by my people 70 x 7 for your unresolved feelings towards God. Hallelujah. If we're not careful...single people...well where's my wife, where's my husband? Well baby he may've brought him to you and you were too picky to grab one of them. Or maybe you messed it up and that's the results of your stupidity.

Brother Vaughn, why am I single? When I heard the voice of Yahweh speak to me in Fredericksburg Texas in 2014, in the shower, water running down my face, I said...Father, I need a wife. It was the very first time I'd ever asked him for a wife. The very next day, when my cousin sent me a message out of the blue and said there's a girl you need to meet, I could have chosen to ignore it and stay right there in Fredericksburg. No I didn't do that. I knew that I had asked for it and everything may not be perfect. The point I'm making is I could still be single. And I could still be blaming God whenever he told me what to do and I didn't do it.

Alright, I'm just trying to help you. You all, this is as real as it gets today. This is as raw as it gets. Listen to me. Stop blaming God for your goofiness. Quit blaming God. Now I know your pride doesn't want to hear that. We want to blame God or the devil. But the truth is, if you don't get up and go to work and look for a job, at the end of the week, and you ain't got no money to pay your bills, don't you dare say...well I paid my tithes. Listen, a man who doesn't work, don't let him eat. The Bible says if you won't work you're an infidel. It kills me when lazy people want to blame God for their finances.

Listen, I'm trying to tell you all today—get rid of the debt balance that you have given to God! It's time to give him a Jubilee from the debts you have given to his charge. Hallelujah. Well brother Vaughn, look what I gave up for this message. I get so sick of hearing somebody say that. Look what I gave up for this message. What did you give up? Who do you really think you are? Well I gave up my family. Well they didn't like you anyhow or they wouldn't have turned on you. Well I lost my best friend. Wasn't too "best" about them or they'd respect your conscience. Anybody hear me? If you've ever lost anybody it's because you never had them, don't you understand that? Brother Vaughn, they all turned on me. Then they were never with you.

I don't care what religion you are, I love you. If I love you, I love you. You can go join a cult, whatever you want to do, I don't care, I love you. My point is, people need to find a reason to disassociate from you so they use any excuse they can find. But listen to me. My grandmother told me when she was alive, she said... Son, those who love you, you can never ever make them unlove you ever. Those who don't love you, nothing you will ever do will make them love you.

Brothers and sisters, quit blaming God for your stupid family. You all got to quit saying...look what I lost when I came to God, when I came to the message. What you're trying to do is start a ledger against God. Do you all know why Yahweh has deliberately not provided everything he's promised you? Brother Vaughn, he promised me healing, he promised this. Because he gives you an opportunity to walk by faith rather than by sight. You've got to learn to walk by faith. Brother if he never heals you, Yahweh is good no matter what.

Now I'm going to claim his promise, I'm going to hold onto it, I'm going to believe for it. But I'll tell you what I'm not going to do. If for some reason in his divine wisdom it doesn't happen, there will be no ledger, no chart over here where I've been charging him foolishly. That's what it means—charging God. It means you've got a ledger... ok my family's not talking to me now. None of you will confess to this, but...alright I'm doing it for the Lord, oh I'll suffer for him, oh whatever, ok, I lost that for the Lord, I lost my... And there's a whole ledger. Before you know it, you've got a whole ledger against God.

So, Yahweh gives you an opportunity to release him from his obligations, from his debt, to rest in him knowing that no matter what Yahweh does, he does all things well. In other words, we are called to declare a Jubilee over Yahweh himself. Hallelujah. Even Yahweh gets released from his debts in an overcomer's mind. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Somebody say...YOU OWE ME NOTHING! Hallelujah! You owe me nothing. I owe you, but you owe me nothing. I mean didn't he give you a Jubilee? Didn't you owe the Father? Hallelujah. Now give him one! Amen? Tell Yahweh...you have no debts with me.

I don't care what's happened in my life. Do you all know I could give Yahweh a debt for the way I was born? The way I was raised. What people did to me. See, that's where bitterness comes from. Many people will never confess that they have a long list. Your husband left you. Your wife left you. You don't know why God allowed it. Listen to me. It's not God that walked out that door on you darling. It's a human that you chose that's made up of flesh. Don't charge Yahweh foolishly. Hallelujah. Amen.

It's time to clear God's debt. Do you know why? Some of you cannot have a relationship. You cannot have a relationship with an abusive father. And in your mind if Yahweh is an abusive Father, no wonder you cannot have a relationship with him—he owes you. I've come to tell you saints of God. I want everyone to hear me. Today is the day. I said today is the day when you are going to give Yahweh a Jubilee. You're going to tell him...you owe me nothing, I owe you everything, but now you gave me a Jubilee, so now we don't owe one another. Hallelujah! Glory to God. Hallelujah.

What a thought that we don't owe him. He gave us a Jubilee. Praise the Lord. And if we're not careful, if we don't receive that Jubilee, we'll live in condemnation. Hallelujah. Oh I'm so glad he gave me a Jubilee.

You all, here's the bad news. I had 30 slides today and I haven't got off the first one yet. Good God from Mt. Zion. Hallelujah. What are we going to do? Pastor, we all needed this.

Ok, so let's continue. I want to go to the next screen. I'm going to try to get somewhere with this today if I can.

Yahshua is our prime example. He was totally innocent yet he was brought as a lamb to the slaughter. What a terrible injustice he had to endure. We are called to partake of his sufferings.

1 Peter 4:13

But rejoice in the fact that you are partakers of the Messiah's sufferings; that when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy.

Every one in this class today wants to rule and reign with Christ. That's all you talk about. But somebody forgot to read to you 2 Timothy 2:12

2 Timothy 2:12

If we endure, we will also reign with Him; If we deny Him, He will also deny us.

So if we do not endure the chastisement of the Lord and we get bitter about it, we can never reign ever, ever. I want to give you all a perfect example. One day about four years ago, I had become a co-owner of a car lot in Ocean Springs Mississippi. It was a huge dealership that had been there for 30 years, very established, and tremendous income. It was a cash cow. I had been there about two years, me and another man owned it together.

My wife and I were very comfortable financially. It was a great thing. One day I came home—we had gone on a cruise—and the day I had got home from a cruise, the co-owner called me and basically said he was going to end our business contract. He basically left me high and dry after I had rebuilt his dealership.

Anyway, long story short, I'll never forget that moment. We were financially set, no worries, great income. I'll never forget the fear that came in my heart that day. I came to my wife. I was desperately in tears because our security had just gotten jerked out from under us. That's all we had. I had quit working with mother and had bought the car lot and I didn't know what we were going to do. I had no idea what we were going to do.

I'll never forget that day. A thought came in my mind. I was a faithful tither. I tithe on every dime Yahweh loans to me. I'm not a thief. Some of you all are thieves. You need to repent. You need to confess for stealing from Yahweh. Yes, I said it—you're a thief. He can't trust you with as little as 10%. Don't make me repeat again, I will. I'm talking to somebody.

Anyway, I'll never forget that day when I said to Yahweh...well I'm a tither, and the man that just stole my business from me never tithed a day in his life. You know what I was just starting to do—put a little check mark in the ledger against Yahweh. While we were suffering, this man is taking our business and living high on the hog, and we have no idea how we're going to live the next week.

My wife went back to her closet. I had no idea she had been stealing money from me ha ha ha! Everybody needs a little wife that'll take some money and put it back. I'm sitting there freaking out, what are we going to do. And she goes to her closet, and listen guys, it was not a lot of money. It was about $2,500. It wasn't a lot of money. It was a little cash she had been stealing from me and putting to the side. She can't steal it—it's her money too—I'm playing. But anyway, she came walking out with that and said...baby I saved this up. You all I started crying because the Lord had her to do that. And the Lord showed me right then. He said...son, you'll never go without, I'll never let you go without. But I need you to trust me.

Now I said all that to say this: When I compare how blessed I am today to what I was that day whenever I thought I was blessed...but because I chose to uncheck that mark against Yahweh...uncheck it...when I go to a church where two people are sitting in the congregation, and I had been prophesied to by Kim Clement himself that I'd be a voice to the nation, and I couldn't get two people in my church. I could've put a checkmark when I looked at the church across town who wasn't preaching truth how blessed they were—I could've put a checkmark there.

But folks, I've never charged God foolishly, my grandma taught me better. I want you to know today I cannot outrun the blessings. Do you understand that? I cannot outrun them hallelujah...they're overtaking me because Yahweh is faithful! Yahweh is good! Right when I get worried. I was worried last week about something. When I say worried, in real life you have to pay the bills, there's needs on the land. You know, we're building a gate next week. That gate alone is thousands of dollars. And I had a little worry last week. I went to the post office box and there was a $5,500 check there. You all, if you could've seen me in the post office with people all around. I began to dance before the Lord, and I began to say...blessed be the name of Yahweh...because here's why.

If it's his deal, it's his bill! And if you will do the work, he will take care of the rest. He's good! Somebody say...HE'S GOOD !!! Blessed be the name of Yahweh !!! Hallelujah! Amen. He never fails. He never ever fails. He is good all the time.

Now I want to read Genesis 50:19-20. If you ever plan to be in the remnant, you're going to have to deal with your bitterness against God.

Genesis 50:19-20

19 But Joseph said to them; Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of Yahweh?

20 You intended harm against me, but Yahweh intended it for blessing, in order to accomplish this day the keeping alive of many people.

So Joseph had been given a dream by Yahweh he was going to be great. He was going to be what? A voice to the nation of Egypt. Yahweh had given him a dream. Do you all remember? His star was going to outshine the other stars. Do you remember his sheaf was going to rise above, and the other sheaves were going to bow down, he was going to lead them? And what happens to Joseph? He gets thrown into a pit and left for what? Dead. There was nobody in his “church” that day.

Everybody listen to this. There was an opportunity for Joseph to give God a checkmark, wasn't it? Wasn't that a great time for Joseph to look around that pit and say...uh uh, this is not what my dream told me, this is not what you promised me. But that's not what he did. Listen to what he told his brothers. Read it one more time. Listen to what he said when they begin to apologize to him for how they had treated him. Here's what he told them...read.

Genesis 50:19-20

19 But Joseph said to them; Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of Yahweh?

20 You intended harm against me, but Yahweh intended it for blessing, in order to accomplish this day the keeping alive of many people.

Whew! If that man would not have done what he did to me at that car lot, I would never have left that security and none of us would be here today !!! Hallelujah. Listen folks—blessed be the name of Yahweh in ALL things! I promise you what you don't understand today you will testify about tomorrow. Hallelujah. I hope you put that in your heart what I just said.

What you don't understand today you will testify about tomorrow

You have got to believe in your heart of hearts folks, that Yahweh is good all the time. Not some of the time, but all of the time! Hallelujah. Hallelujah! He's good. I'm talking to somebody today. Looking around your life and your life didn't turn out like you thought it should, it's not over yet. Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not to your own understanding. Hallelujah.

Now we're leaving slide two and moving forward. Hallelujah. Now that brings us into the subject of today's lesson: Eternal Torment. All of Christianity believes in eternal torment and that's what separates First Harvest Ministries from most of Christianity. We've always believed that God's plan for mankind is to destroy the vast majority, put them in a kettle, a burning fire, for all eternity as long as Yahweh lives. That is what we have attributed to this God of Jubilee. So we're going to get started on that subject.

ETERNAL TORMENT

The whole theory of eternal torment rests upon a faulty translation of a couple of Greek words, and actual distortions and perversions of what the scriptures actually say. Here's the question we have to answer today...

Does physical death end the availability of God's grace?

That's a question I want you to ponder. Is death powerful enough to end the grace of God for a human? Now, the second death is, but not the first death. What I just asked you, you have got to let that live in your brain. Does God's grace end at the moment of death?

How often we have heard preachers warn people that "the day of grace will soon be over forever". Has anybody ever heard that preached? That we're living in the age of grace. The old preachers used to say...the door of grace is about to shut. You're about to die and the door of grace will close for you.

Now these are questions we're going to have to answer today. Nothing could be further from the truth brothers and sisters. For as long as Yahweh exists, guess what will always exist? Grace. Grace doesn't die when you die. Grace lives as long as Yahweh lives. And this idea that somehow when you die, that's the end of grace—well we've got to find out if that's true or not.

The grace of God is one of his eternal, immutable attributes. Let's go read Ephesians 2:7-8. I'm about to give you a great revelation today—truth. Paul explains that the grace of God is going to be displayed. Listen to me. We are about to enter a greater age of grace than the one we're living in now. I'm ready to show it to you in your Bible, not mine, but yours. Hallelujah.

Listen saints. You've not seen grace yet. Oh hallelujah. The age you're living in is not the age of grace. This is the church age. This is not the age of grace. Grace was in the garden of Eden. Grace has been all throughout the Bible. And grace doesn't end when you die. Because Paul is about to make it plain for you. Let's read that.

Ephesians 2:7-8

7 In order that in the coming ages He might show the exceeding riches of His love, by kindness toward us in Yahshua Messiah.

8 For indeed by undeserved pardon you will be saved through the faith; but this does not come out of you; it is the gift of Yahweh.

Alright now you're about to find out why he has called you into the first harvest. You're about to understand something. Notice what he says, that in the age to come he is going to show his exceeding grace—not in your age. Because you are not living in the age that Paul is talking about. The next age that's coming to the world—that will be when the greatest grace of God will be displayed before the whole world. After you're dead and gone, grace is carrying on, and it's going to be there when the next age begins. When does that happen? When the resurrection takes place.

What does he mean when he's going to show forth his love? Here's what it means. The unveiling of the grace of God to the whole creation is the true reason for the manifestation of the sons of Yahweh. The purpose of the age that you're living in, the church age, is to gather out a people that Yahweh can resurrect before the whole world and show them, and display them in the age to come as the trophies of his love and his grace.

That is what Yahweh is doing right now. He is gathering together the trophies. There's greater grace coming than this age has ever seen saints. This so-called "age of grace" is coming to an end. But grace will be more manifested in the future than ever before. This age which is presently coming to a close should more properly be called the church age, for grace will not end, but the present form and administration of the church will end.

In the age to come Yahweh will move from calling out a people from among the nations to saving the nations themselves. In ages beyond that God will deal with the rest of men releasing the rest as his grace is ever increasing. Hallelujah. (I don't even know if you all just grabbed what I read to you.)

Grace is increasing, not decreasing. The God you serve is good. Some people don't understand the day of judgment. And we're going to be talking a lot more about the day of judgment in the upcoming classes. But I want to start and just give you a little overview. I'm not teaching on it right now. But I want to give you a little overview about the purpose of the judgment day which will usher in this great age of grace.

The day of judgment will begin a whole new era. Somebody say...a brand new era. There's a new age coming. When I hear the people of this world talking about New Agers—baby I am a new ager. Don't you understand? I preach the new age, don't you get that? I'm the real new ager. Hallelujah. While they're looking for a new world order, I'm looking for a true world order. Hallelujah. It's coming in the new age. Glory to God. Satan's trying to pervert the new age, but there is a new age coming! Hallelujah. And you're going to live in that new age. You're going to be governors in that new age.

The purpose of it is the judgment day where the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. Now, brother Vaughn, what are we going to be doing in that age? Teaching what you're learning right now. One day every one of you will become echos of what you've heard here today. You will teach the people of the world what you spend every Saturday morning learning. You are in teacher's college today. You've been in teacher's college for years now.

You're being prepared to govern with Christ. Why do you think I had to teach you today...don't hold anything against God—because you're going to have to teach the world that. Why do you think I had to teach you...go to your brothers and sisters, confess...you're going to have to teach the world what I taught you.

Now, there's going to be a rod of iron in Yahshua's hand when this age begins. Why is that? The people are going to have to learn righteousness. How have you learned righteousness? With that rod of iron. Amen. The one you get mad about every time he hits you with it. Hallelujah. See, you don't have to learn salvation. You have to learn righteousness. Salvation's pretty easy. Righteousness is a lifetime—the tool of time of learning.

Now, during the judgment period which will last we believe 100 years, that's where all this talk about fire comes in—where people are going to learn righteousness. Do you know there's no mention of the lake of fire except in the book of Revelation? Did you know Torah never talks about it? Did you know that nowhere in the New Testament did the apostles talk about it?

And yet in the churches we grew up in, that's all we talked about—the lake of fire. Did you all know the only place the lake of fire's mentioned is in the book of Revelation? Now don't go to what Yahshua said—don't think where Yahshua said where the worm never dies—it's not talking about the lake of fire. I'll show you that in a minute. The only time you find the lake of fire is right after the judgment begins. Where did the Bible say that judgment always begins? The house of Yahweh. Awww ok.

So judgment has begun for you and I already, correct? What? The lake of fire. You see? Alright now. The same lake of fire that he's thrown you into to burn out the impurities and learn righteousness, don't you know that after the judgment the whole nations are going to be thrown into that same tribulation that you have experienced, learning to submit to the will of Yahweh? It's not going to be easy.

Do you all know that when Yahshua returns Elon Musk is going to have to learn to bow and say yes to Yahshua like you have? Do you know that Bill Gates is going to have to find a way to learn the right way of living? Do you think that's going to happen without a lake of fire? You've got to get the dress off and the only way to do that is with the lake of fire.

What is the purpose of the lake of fire? First of all, let's read about it.

Revelation 20:15

And whoever was not found written in The Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire.

So in other words, if you were not counted worthy of the first resurrection, you're going to be cast into the lake of fire. This is important for you to understand. But today I'm not going to be able to get into all the details of this, but I'm going to touch on it today.

Where does the lake of fire come from? It's an ocean of fire. All rivers flow into the ocean don't they? The lake of fire is created from the river of fire. Where does the river of fire come from? To understand the ocean of fire, you've got to understand the river of fire that feeds the ocean of fire. And then you've got to know where the river of fire comes from.

Daniel 7:10

A fiery stream issued and came forth from before Him; thousand thousands ministered to Him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him; the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

Ok, here's the judgment. Yahshua is sitting on the throne. The Torah is open, the Bible is open, and coming forth from that judgment seat, that Bible, that Word, is a river of fire. You cannot find the ocean of fire till you find the source of the fire. But notice what the fire is. It's the judgment of the Word.

Do you all know the fire you felt this morning when I was reading your mail, anybody? Did you feel the fire this morning when I was talking to you about things in your own heart, in your own life? Did you not feel the burning of that river of fire that was burning up your own pride? Yes, automatically you started thinking...who do I need to confess to? Why? You got burned by the fire.

Do you know who's going to be left in that fire? You, you and you are going to be left in that fire. Do you know who's going to come out of it? The Elohim. The God Family. The Sons of Yahweh, the daughters of Yahweh, completely changed by the fire!! Glory! We are so carnal-minded when we read the book of Revelation. We're so carnal-minded! Everything in that book is pretty much symbolic. But when we get to the lake of fire, we want to make it literal.

Daniel 7:9

I beheld until the thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of days did sit, Whose vesture was white as snow, and the hair of His head like the pure wool; His throne was like the fiery flame, and His wheels as burning fire.

Whew! Hallelujah! The river of fire is flowing from the fiery throne. Did I hear this verse start off with thrones as in plural? Do you know why? Because on those thrones will be sitting you, you and you. And coming forth from their life will be the Word that they have become and that Word is a flame of fire, and it will be what every member of the world will be cast into at the judgment!

The wheel in the middle of the wheel is the burning fire. And it will flow forth from the throne of Yahweh. And the throne of Yahshua. And the thrones of the brothers, the government. The thrones! If you ever hear somebody say there's only one throne in heaven, bring them to that verse darling. There'll be many thrones.

Now, what is that fire coming forth from the judgment seat? Deuteronomy 33:2 will give you the answer. Now let's read it. This is the Torah.

Deuteronomy 33:2

And he said, The LORD came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them.

Wow, did he just call the Torah "the fiery law"? Hallelujah. And what is open on the throne at the judgment? It is the Torah. And what is coming forth from that Torah? A river of fire and it turns into a lake of fire. That fire is the judgment of the Word of God. Remember, you and I were not just baptized in the Holy Spirit, but we were baptized in the Spirit and the fire. He shall baptize you with FIRE!

This whole world is going to be baptized in fire just like you were. Where do you have to get baptized? In a lake. You've got to go get in a lake of fire to be baptized in fire! Hallelujah! Glory to God! Every one in this room is being baptized in a lake of fire. Hallelujah. Why? Because that's the Torah. That's the fiery law. That's that law this morning when you thought you were doing just fine with God, and here come your preacher bringing in the fire, making you say...ooh, ooh, uh uh, maybe I need to... That's the fire.

You're learning righteousness. I said you're learning righteousness from this fire. Oh I've got so much to teach today, Lord help me.

Yahweh's Plan of the Ages

To understand this fire, you've got to know Yahweh's plan of the ages. Until you get the full plan in your mind, your doctrines will always have holes in them. Until you know that the plan is JUBILEE and RECONCILIATION, you will not be able to deal with certain verses that seem to indicate Yahweh's desperate desire for revenge.

Awww you've got to know the plan. You've got to know "in the beginning was the plan". The plan was with Yahweh. The plan was Yahweh's plan. And in the fullness of time, that plan was manifested in the flesh. And ladies and gentlemen, the plan's being manifested everyday—what God's doing.

Yahweh's plan is like a blueprint of a building, made up of many parts. Do you know when someone comes into your life, and maybe you're at the bottom, they don't see that you were at the top yesterday. They just come in on a certain chapter of your life. They judge you by that chapter don't they? Do you all know that's how you read your Bible because you don't know the whole plan? You read your Bible with your understanding of the age that you're living in. You don't make room for the age to come. And therefore, when you read these scriptures about hell and lake of fire and heaven—you don't know the plan.

If you were pulling up to a house that's being built and they've just installed the studs, you can't "read" that house yet. If you do you're not going to read it right. But the architect knows how it ends. To him it's already beautiful, to you it looks like chaos. Pull up on a construction sight, you've got piles of concrete, sheetrock. It looks like utter chaos, but to the one who drew the blueprints, it's already built.

It's just like the land we bought. When people pull up on it, they don't see what I see. To me Tabernacles is already up. When I pull up on that land do you know what I see? I see you all dancing, all under the tabernacle. Every time I pull up on the land, I hear the sound of the worship coming from the tabernacle. I hear it. It's already done. I'm just waiting on the money ha ha. But it's already done. I'm waiting on the fullness of time. The fullness of time is all we're waiting on. We're waiting for time to catch up with the plan.

Instead of different floors of a building, Yahweh's plan has different ages. Through each of these ages, the divine plan has steadily progressed towards completion. Only when it is complete and mankind sees the final results will they all be able to appreciate the wisdom, the justice, the love and the power of the divine architect.

The Entire Plan is for Yahshua and His Bride

The entire plan was made for Yahshua and his bride. It is not any longer a question of the church working so hard to get a few souls saved, but it has become a question of the working out of God's plan and the purpose for all people and for the ages he has created. You see, if you're not careful, you become church-minded rather than nations-minded. You become so small in your thinking—you're just trying to get a few more souls saved. And when you miss the plan, then you don't understand your Bible

All the ages are created for Yahshua the Messiah. Let's read Hebrews 1:2 from the Diaglott. Your Bible's not going to read it correctly, maybe the Book of Yahweh has it correct so I will show both.

Hebrews 1:2 (Diaglott)

In the last of these days, spoken to us by a Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, and ON ACCOUNT OF WHOM, also He constituted the ages.

Hebrews 1:2 (BOY)

Has in these last days spoken to us through His Son, Whom He has appointed heir of all things, for Whom He also made the world.

For whom he made the world. Now your KJV will mess it up for you, it'll say "through whom" making you think Yahshua created the world. But it is a horrible mistranslation.

So everything in Yahweh's plan is for one purpose—you and Yahshua. I want you to think about it. The purpose of creation is for you to rule and reign. How are we going to rule and reign if all things were created for that purpose if there's nothing to rule and reign over...if they all go to hell, if they all go to the lake of fire? All you're going to be ruling and reigning over is one another. How are the rulers reigning over the rulers? Amen?

I know we talk about the death being required for the remarriage of the divorced ones, but in this sense, Yahshua also came to prepare a home. Oh yes, that's right, amen. By the way, we don't believe that quite like the Messianics teach that. The Messianics teach that Yahweh had to come and die to remarry Israel, and that's how they come up with incarnation and all. But it's not true.

Go watch my teaching (firstharvest.tv/video/1446) entitled "Did God Die to Remarry Israel?" Yahweh did not have to die because he cannot die, ok? So you need to go watch that video, but great point there brother. The most stupid thing

I've ever heard is Yahweh had to come and die. How does an eternal God die? Ok, let's continue. Praise the Lord.

I never cease to be amazed at those who profess to yearn for the Sons of Yahweh to be manifested. Listen to this carefully. We love to quote the scripture in Romans 8 that the whole creation is groaning waiting for the manifestation of the Sons of God because the creation itself will have a Jubilee. They will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the Sons of God. Now we quote that scripture and then when you tell them (the church) that the Sons of God will really, truly, actually, factually, completely set all creation free the church gets upset and calls you a heretic for believing what the scripture says!

Why is creation waiting for the resurrection if after the resurrection they're all going to hell?! I mean just use a tenth of your brain, you don't need to use the whole thing. Creation is begging for the resurrection. Well you all better not because we're all going to hell as soon as we get resurrected. We're throwing you all in the lake of fire.

Then what are they groaning for? Why are they begging for you to be resurrected? Because they know it's you who's going to set them all free. It's you who's bringing their Jubilee to them. It's you who's going to put Satan under your feet and set creation free! It's you! Joy comes in the morning. In the morning of the resurrection. Hallelujah.

It blows my mind how you quote that scripture but don't believe it. You're bringing the Jubilee because the millennial reign is the Jubilee. You're erasing the debt of all the slaves of Satan. We'll be setting them free! Their debt that they owe God! And the beautiful thing about the Jubilee...it's not like the seven year Jubilee, it's not like the seventh year of rest where at the end of the year they all go back into slavery. No, it's the Jubilee where all the land gets returned to those who have a debt. God gave Adam all this land and his children, and we get all that land back at the Jubilee with no more mortgage, no more debt, nothing is owed to our charge!

You're a minister of that reconciliation. Your message is the Jubilee message. You're going to celebrate in three weeks. You're going to come together and dance for the release of the rest! Oh hallelujah, it's coming saints. We are the only group of people on earth that knows about it, that cares about it, that celebrates it. We're the ministers of hope. Hallelujah. We're not the minsters of dope, we're the ministers of hope.

That's why I say...how can you be one of those instruments that's going to deliver all of creation while you close your eyes and stop your ears and shut up your heart at what's going to happen at your resurrection? It's almost like we have such a judgment against Yahweh and all these people he let's get by with stuff that it's almost like we want to see them go to hell! I'm being real. Have you not forgiven those who get by with what you don't get by with? You better check yourself. Some of you want them to go to hell. Do you know why? Look at what all you've suffered for God. You see, you're charging somebody. Somebody's being charged for all that you're going through. (I'm preaching better than you all are listening, hallelujah.)

You're charging the world. Well I'll just suffer for the Lord because I know one day he's going to choose me and he's going to get rid of all them people. My neighbor's just bought a new yacht...well you're going to hell dude, I'll not have a yacht, I'll be glad not to have a yacht. What's wrong with you?

Look at your neighbor and you tell your neighbor one day I'm going to teach you this life I'm living, one day I'm going to introduce you to my husband Yahshua. One day you're going to become the children of this relationship and you're all going to be set free. Hallelujah, oh hallelujah. I'm telling you there's some Christians who want the world to go to hell for not having to do what they had to do. Check your heart.

If God isn't going to do what he said, if Christ isn't going to actually draw all men unto himself, if the whole of creation is not going to be delivered into the glorious liberty of the children of God, if God will not make all men alive in Christ, if the last enemy, death, and hell will never be destroyed, if the devil is going to possess the souls of the vast majority of men forever, if God is never going to become ALL IN ALL, then I fail to see what is the purpose of all this qualifying of sonship, for a glorious ministry in the age and ages to come, for THERE IS NO MINISTRY FOR THE SONS (for you) if God's not going to do all those things!

It's all in vain unless you believe what I'm preaching to you. What is the point of it all? Why train for reigning if I'm not going to be reigning over anything? We might as well forget about sonship, forget about being kings and priests unto God. Do you know what a priest does? A priest intercedes for the people. Do you know what you're going to be doing during the coming age? You're going to be the intercessor that's going to deliver all men. You're going to be a king and a priest unto Yahweh, interceding for creation.

There are those content with the present church program, and satisfied that while untold billions are damned forever, God will have his sweet little handful of saints to rejoice with him in heaven! Listen. I don't know how some of you even want to go to heaven. To me it would be miserable. Here's why. There's some of you watching me on this Zoom right now—you're not even talking to one another. You don't like one another. But you're begging God to drag you off into a place where there's no escaping for all of eternity with that very person you can't talk to right now that you don't even like. That's going to be miserable. Stuck, you're not going to be stuck with these people, you're going to get off Zoom and you're not going to have to look at them anymore. You're not stuck with them. When you go to heaven, you're going to be stuck. You don't even like these people. How are some of you going with ex-husbands and ex-wives? If you forgive them now you can live with them. Oh hallelujah. Might as well forgive them now.

My time's gone but my slides are not. Why don't we just read one more slide.

Without the Knowledge of the Plan - the Bible is Full of Holes

I want to prove it to you. Psalms 2:8-9. I want to show you where if you don't know the whole plan, you'll think the Bible is full of holes. For example this one verse that we're about to read.

Psalms 2:8-9

8 Ask of Me, and I will give You the nations for Your inheritance. The ends of the earth will be for Your possession.

9 With a rod of iron You will break the nations; You will dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel!

If you don't know the full plan, you'll think that that scripture wasn't fulfilled. Yahshua's never been given the nations of the world. He still doesn't have the nations. Who's got the nations right now? Satan. He's the god of the nations. He's the god of this world. He's the man behind the man behind the curtain. Here's a promise to Yahshua. I'm going to give you the nations. You are going to break them to pieces with a rod of iron. In other words, you're going to make them all submit and bow their knee to you.

Now, don't you all think that when he went to the garden of Gethsemane that night to pray that that promise was ringing in his mind? See he didn't even know the plan. Yahshua didn't know anything about the final plan. If he would have, he would've jumped upon that cross, not tried to get off of it. But he did remember this scripture. Listen, he's on a cross. It doesn't look anything like that scripture does it? Hallelujah. But he knew the word, did you hear me? He knew the word, he had read that scripture, it's in the book of Psalms. Don't you know he had the Psalms with him? He knew that even though he was dying on a cross that that scripture had to come to pass.

Amen. When you know the word of God—when you know the word, your current circumstances are a nonissue. When you know the word, it doesn't matter if you're on a cross or wherever you are. When Yahshua came in the flesh, he didn't ask for the nations of the world at all. Here's what he said. John 17:9. "I pray not for the world, but for them which you have given me out of the world." It wasn't time for the world yet—it was time for the church, the Ekklesia, the government, because he knew he couldn't rule the world until he had a government without end. A government that would help him rule.

Uh oh, there's another slide. What ought I do? Keep going. Alright that's what I'll do.

WITHOUT THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE PLAN - THE BIBLE IS FULL OF HOLES

- John 17:20 - Rev. 2:26-27 - Rom. 8:17; II Tim. 2:12
- THE WORLD MIGHT BELIEVE ON HIM THROUGH THEM. Can we not see by this that when the time element is properly understood Yahshua is to possess and rule the nations, but first there is the great task of calling and preparing those who will be partners with Him in that universal rulership which will bring the triumph of His Kingdom in all realms from pole to pole!
- The reason God's children make such frantic, though futile, efforts to compass land and sea to get the whole world converted in this age is because they cannot see that God is first calling out a people for His name that through them in the dispensation of the fullness of times He will gather all things into Christ.

Grab those verses. We'll run through them.

John 17:20

I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe on Me through their word.

Uh oh. Did you all hear that? He said now I'm praying for the world, but here's why I'm praying for them first (talking about me and you). That the world might believe on me through them. There's the plan folks. You first and then them. Read John 17:9. He says he's not praying for the world at that moment.

I pray for them. I do not pray for the world, but for those whom You have given Me; for they are Yours.

He said I'm not praying for the world, but right now I'm praying for the first harvest. I'm praying for the Ekklesia first. But when you get to verse 20, what does he say? Read it again.

John 17:20

I do not pray for these alone...

Ok but wait a minute. A while ago he was just praying for those wasn't he? Even Yahweh knows the timing of things. And the prayer starts the way the plan starts. I wish you all would hear that. The first focus is on the first fruit, the first harvest. But later in the prayer he says...alright now that I'm praying for the first harvest, now I'll pray for the rest, to release the rest. Now I'm praying for the rest. Listen to what he says, read it.

...but also for those who will believe on Me through their word.

Oh hallelujah. He said I have to get them prayed for first so that they can be used to answer the second part of my prayer because the second part of my prayer is for the whole world, for those that will believe on me through their ministry. You all that's powerful stuff. That's the whole plan. Us first—then release the rest.

Revelation 2:26-27

26 And he who overcomes, and keeps My works until the end, to him I will give power over the nations.

27 And He will rule them with a rod of iron; as the potter's vessels will be broken to pieces as I also have received from My Father.

So those of you who will be ruling and reigning are the ones who are going to be breaking the potter's vessels. Did you hear that? You're going to break them like he broke you with that fiery law. Praise Yahweh, what powerful scriptures that you never learned in Christianity.

Romans 8:17

And if children, then heirs: heirs of Yahweh, and joint-heirs with Yahshua, since we suffer with Him, in order that we may also be glorified with Him.

Oh hallelujah. That's a scripture we all need to remember.

2 Timothy 2:12

If we endure, we will also reign with Him; If we deny Him, He will also deny us.

Amen. Now brothers and sisters, I want you to pay attention to this next slide because this slide is the fullness of the plan that you don't understand at this time. You've got to learn this slide because within it is the great mystery of God that will be finished at the last day. Let's read it.

THE GREAT DISPLAY OF GRACE

- (Eph. 2:7). "That He might show..." "Show" is from a Greek word meaning "to exhibit, to put on display like a work of art, to demonstrate."
- The Amplified Bible reads, "He did this that He might clearly DEMONSTRATE through the ages to come the immeasurable (limitless, surpassing) riches of His free grace in kindness and goodness of heart toward us in Christ Jesus."
- Kenneth Wuest translates, "In order that He might EXHIBIT ... in the ages that pile themselves upon one another in continuous succession the surpassing wealth of His grace in kindness to us in Christ Jesus." to whom? Not to those who already know it - that would be useless nonsense.
- But to those who do not know it! And not as an expression of God's scorn, ridicule, or cynicism, saying to the multitudes of hopelessly lost men and women, "Just LOOK at what you missed!" That would be no demonstration of the riches of GRACE nor would it be an exhibit of His unsurpassed KINDNESS! But, praise His name, in the ages to come He shall put His grace and kindness toward us ON DISPLAY that the entire creation may walk across the stage of His cosmic theater and behold and see and finally come to understand WHAT GOD HAS PROVIDED FOR ALL MEN IN CHRIST.

Let's go to Ephesians 2:7 one more time and I'm going to break it down for you.

Ephesians 2:7

In order that in the coming ages He might show the exceeding riches of His love, by kindness toward us in Yahshua Messiah.

Let's break that down. In the coming age he's going to show forth. That word "show" comes from a Greek word that means "to exhibit, like in a museum, to put on display like a work of art, to demonstrate".

The Amplified Bible reads it this way:

Ephesians 2:7 (Amp)

He did this that He might clearly demonstrate through the ages to come the immeasurable (limitless, surpassing) riches of His free grace in kindness and goodness of heart toward us in Christ Jesus.

In the Kenneth Wuest translation:

In order that He might exhibit ... in the ages that pile themselves upon one another in continuous succession the surpassing wealth of His grace in kindness to us in Christ Jesus.

Now my question to you is: Who is he building this museum for? Now you understand why I taught you and I never really explained it about the catching away of the church. How many of you have ever heard me say: And he'll lift us up across the canvass of sky as trophies of grace? Hallelujah. Because it is at that moment where he'll set up a display case. You're the displays of his grace !! Hallelujah.

He's going to show you off of creatures that he took and broke their vessels, through them in the lake of fire, and will resurrect them as his trophies of what his grace can do! That's why there's going to be a catching away of the saints. You're going to rise up on the earth. That's one thing every eye can see is the sky. And there you will be shown off. You will be displayed as the true world government, the true world order. God is going to display you in the ages to come to show the whole world what he's about to do to them. You're going to be the prototype.

He's going to say...these are your neighbors that you thought were just crazy, but they are your government, they are your teachers, follow them wherever they lead you, and they will teach you righteousness for my name's sake. Hallelujah. Oh hallelujah.

Now let me ask you a question. Look at your life. Look at yourself. Are you worth showing off? In other words, have you changed enough to where you can be a witness—I used to be a liar and now I tell the truth. I used to be a whoremonger and now I've learned to be faithful. I used to have pride but now I walk in humility. Have you changed enough to where he can put you in that display case? You know when you walk in someone's home and their trophies are lined up in a case—you know what it secretly tells you, right? There were accomplishments, there were victories.

Don't you know why you're being displayed as trophies? There was a victory! There was a victory!!! He that overcometh will sit with me in my throne. They will have victory over their own self! They will destroy their self in the lake of fire, and they will come out, they will be shown off to the world!! Hallelujah! Oh, let him change you today, let him change you today!! Become a trophy he'll show off in the ages to come.

My time is gone. If it weren't I'd be going to the next slides (below) where we'd start talking about hell and all, and I could start explaining all those things to you.

LET'S DISCUSS HELL !!!

- There is one Hebrew word and three Greek words which have been translated "hell" in our commonly used King James or Authorized Version of the Bible
SHEOL – Abode Of The Dead
GEHANNA – Valley of Hinnom – City dump outside of Jerusalem where the fire never went out and the worms never die
- Tartaroo – Prison – II Peter 2:4 & Jude 6
- HADES – the GRAVE – an UNSEEN PLACE
“Hell the Potatoes” or a dating couple would seek “for a hell” to getaway to for courting
- Rev. 1:17-18 – how we MISUSE the word HELL !!!

THE LAKE OF FIRE

- Eph. 4:8-10. The quotation is from Ps. 68:18
- I believe every word from the Bible about the LAKE OF FIRE. I simply do not believe the words of ROME, the apostate churches, or tradition says about it
- The teaching concerning the lake of fire does not appear anywhere in Scripture except in the book of Revelation

NEXT week – we will journey into the LAKE OF FIRE

Thank you Lord. Thank you for your word today. Hallelujah. There's so much more I want to teach you about this subject. Joy is coming in the morning saints. My mother in the Lord wrote this song. It is one of my favorite ones.

What God's doing in me, it's for eternity
What God's making of me, it's for eternity
It's not just for today, or even tomorrow, for this will pass away
What God's doing in me, it is for eternity

Amen! Hallelujah. It's to display me as a trophy of his grace. He will show the world how he changed even my faith. He will show the world what grace can do. He'll say...If I did it for them, I plan to do it for you. What God's doing in me, it is for eternity. Hallelujah.
