TO THE COMMUNITY*

*BY FIRST HARVEST MINISTRIES:
P.O. Box 2757, Bay St. Lois, MS 39521*

We invite you to celebrate the Sabbath with us each week as the sun sets on Friday evenings and the Sabbath begins at sunset. We gather at 11:00 am on Saturday at The Miracle Tabernacle 235 Old Spanish Trail in Waveland, MS.

Each week the Holy Spirit reveals to those who hunger and thirst after Him, the marvelous manna from heaven.

We are a Spirit-Filled group of believers who seek after the original message as preached to us by the Apostles of the Messiah. Our roots trace back to our forefathers through the great Pentecostal outpouring and all the way back to our the early Apostolic church, built upon the Apostles foundation .

THE MESSAGE OF THE CHURCH

You can trust us!

Send your children to our classrooms; we are the church and we are the final hope for the world. You can believe what we tell you, we are the final harbingers of truth. Let us “train your children up in the way they should go so that when they are old they will not depart from what we, the church, teaches them”

We will teach them to always tell the truth and to resist the temptation to lie.

Meanwhile in the Sunday School class . . . “Now class, here are some of the wonderful truths that you will learn today in Sis. Clarissa Nevertellsalie’s classroom”

Lesson number #1 children - Rabbits lay eggs every year in the spring to represent the resurrection.

Lesson number #2 children - There is a big fat man who sees everything that you do. He knows all and sees all. He has a list and he’s checking it twice.

About that time little Suzy raises her hands

“Oh I know, that would be God” at such a statement Sis. Clarissa Nevertelssalie laughs and says “No, silly Suzy, that would be Santa Claus” as the amused teacher continues to giggle in the hallowed halls of the church and the Sunday school rooms where your children have been sent to learn truth.

Realizing her need to spiritualize what she just told the children, she corrects herself;

“Now of course children; we are also here to celebrate the birth of Christ. This is his birthday and we honor his birth by these trees and by going in debt to give you gifts; it is all to celebrate his birth.

IT IS ALL BUILT ON LIES FROM OUR CHILDHOOD AND NO ONE SEEMS TO CARE

Innocent lies or rather a seductive strategy by hell to guard our children from the truth of our biblical heritage? Satan is well aware of the age old adage; “Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it”

The aged prophet Jeremiah peered into the future and saw that rather than loving truth, God's church would continue to postulate and propagate the lies that we all so innocently learned from those that we trusted to teach us the truth, our parents and our churches.

With a heavy and broken heart, God's prophet to Israel (The church) penned these words for our warning;

Jer 16:19 - O LORD, my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit.

This prophecy is actually not about "the Lies" as much as it is a prophecy of a coming day, the Day of the Lord, also called The Millennial reign; when all the nations will realize THE LIES and they will come to the Saints of Yah (God) to learn the truth.

However, there is a group TODAY that is rising up, they are known as Apostolic followers of the Messiah and this group of people have heard the call to leave the lies; they have heard this clarion call of the shofar way before the rest of the world will hear that call.

Today is the day of awakening for a peculiar group of spirit filled believers. One day all nations will be shown the lies of our forefathers but today the elect of Yah (God) are being awakened to our inheritance of lies.

If you were Satan, would you want children to know the truth of your coming demise? Would you want the children to keep annual reminders of Yah's plan for His ultimate victory or would you rather create another story for them to celebrate each year to distract them from the truth?

This is exactly what the divine strategy of the less than divine counsel of hell has been. To teach our children; to teach them and us an altered version of the truth.

Sadly, the imps of ineptitude have had all the help that they needed from our most trusted leaders in Yah's church.

Habits are best formed and lessons best learned from repetition. Therefore, each year our children practice the lies of Rome and the pagan practices of an unhallowed people; a rebellious people that know not the ways of Israel or the ways of the God of Israel, Yahweh Elohim.

THE GREAT IMITATOR

THE ADVERSARY HAS ABSOLUTELY NO ORIGINALITY IN HIM. We know this by his inability to create anything new. Everything that he propagates is a perversion of the truth.

Yahweh created the Zodiac in the sky to continually display His majesty - Satan perverts it for the use of astrology.

Yahweh created Marriage as a Divine Institution of one man and one woman for the purpose of family and pro creation - Satan perverts it to its total opposite paradox.

Yahweh created the seventh day Sabbath as His chosen day of rest and worship for His people. - Satan perverts it by creating his alter-Sabbath on the first day of the week and by doing so sought to mark the people of Yah with his authority.

Yahweh created the moon and the stars as markers of time for the annual divine appointments with His creation. Satan perverts these annual meetings and alters them to coincide with his pagan festivals of the dead.

THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NOTHING ORIGINAL
ABOUT LUCIFER EX-CEPT FOR REBELLION!

There is absolutely nothing original about Lucifer or HaShatan except for rebellion! As the prince of the power of the air, he sends this rebellion through the airwaves; the frequencies of the human family and thus turns the creation against the laws of their creator. His one desire is for men not to obey the ways of Yahweh but rather to choose for themselves what is right and wrong.

Satan hardly causes anyone to doubt the existence of God but rather he causes men to doubt the right of God to rule over the affairs of men. He paints our God with a brush of evil and perverts the picture of God in the minds of the masses.

Satan will produce the means necessary to protect this perverted image of Yah (God) before the minds of men at all cost. His only problem is that pesky "little flock" scattered in the far flung regions of the globe that see past his lies and refuse to bow to his perversions of truth.

He, Satan, has no fight from the church at large, they follow him and swallow his pills of poison without question. However, there is an elect people, called by Yahweh (God) to have the blinders removed from their eyes by a sovereign act of grace. They will not bow nor flinch nor give sway in their noble pursuit of truth.

This group of people have heard the sounding of the shofar of truth and they have left the army of the zombies who follow heedlessly behind the pied piper of hell. By an act of grace that they, or we, did not deserve, the law, the word of Yahweh, came rushing into our hearts by the agency of the Holy Ghost and called us out of the darkness of Babylon/Rome and her protestant daughters and we ran without reservation.

In our running we ran straight past the gates of religion and family and friends and confidants. An assignment had been given us to search all things; to prove all things and to hold fast to the faith once delivered to us by the Apostles.

Night and day our research began and we returned to the Apostolic Fathers and began to compare what we had been taught by our religions against what these Apostles had taught; the differences were glaring!

As we began to diligently seek out the writings of the Apostles and the early Pre-Nicene church we came to be known as Apostolic because of our affinity towards these pillars of the true church, the Apostles of Y'shua (Jesus).

It is my intention in these next few pages to reveal to you what our studies have found. I plan to share with you nothing less than Apostolic truth. I will write to you what the Apostles wrote; including the original students of the Apostles such as men like Polycarp.

After reading these truths you will never think the same again. As you read you will sense those same blinders falling from you eyes that millions of us are experiencing right along with you. What wonderful days these days are just before the coming of Y'shua (Jesus)

BEGIN A NEW TRADITION OF TRUTH IN YOUR FAMILY

I will be the first to admit that we cannot nor will we ever change the world. However, I can change my home, my family, my congregation. I can change my corner of the world. I can raise the billowing flag of truth in my corner of the lies and the pagan deceptions. My voice and your voice can began planting a new harvest in the fields of deception. Little by little and season by season we can begin revealing to your children and our families the truth of Yah's plan for the ages.

We can build a bridge of hope for those that we love. How can we do this? How can we make a difference? Quite simply, WE BECOME THE DIFFERENCE. We begin doing what our creator has commanded us to do each and every year. Every season of the year, Yahweh (God) has given us seven festivals to celebrate truth.

Only as we begin to practice the faith of the Apostles, the early church and the people of Israel can we begin to turn the tide of deception in our communities. We are part of a high calling; TO RESTORE THE ANCIENT LAND-MARKS OF THE FAITH.

At the time of this writing, we are entering the fall season now and many holidays of Pagan Rome will soon begin to transpire. The high Satanic day of All Hallows Eve (Halloween) is upon us. Many of the churches will all join in with the Wiccans, the Pagans and the Satanist to regard this day in some form or another. The true church of the living God (Yahweh) will not regard the day for one second, it holds absolutely no meaning for us as it is not a commanded Holy Day of OUR GOD!!!

I hear many in the Babylonian church system say that we need an "Alternative" to offer our children and I couldn't agree more. The "Alternative" is truth and what we have to offer our children are THE TRUE HOLY DAYS of our God, Yahweh! While the economy of hell is celebrating Halloween, the saints will be celebrating several commanded feast days; we have a truthful alternative for those who truly desire to obey the Heavenly Father and experience the delight of doing so.

Our sacred calling in these last and evil days is found in the verses of Isaiah 58:12

*Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins and will raise up the age-old foundations;
you will be called Repairer of Broken Walls,
Restorer of Streets with Dwellings*

As we enter into this fall season, the days will become darker as the sun begins losing its battle with the moon and darkness begins to rule. Great fear has always gripped the Pagans of old as they saw this phenomenon. Without the scientific arsenal that we now have of the cosmos; they had no assurances that the sun would return to prominence in the sky. However, every year during the fall equinox around the 25th of December, the sun seemed to be reborn as the days grew longer and longer. This birth of "The Sun God" on the exact same time period each year gave birth to the Druid celebration that is now called Christmas.

Legend demands that a son of God or the Sun (then regarded of the greatest of the gods) be born on the 25th of December. Much greater books are available by the hundreds on the historical evidence. The purpose of this writing is not to belabor the pagan points of Christmas but rather to teach you the truth about the alternative to Christmas.

Many well-meaning Christians, when they learn that we do not celebrate with the pagans on their holidays, of course they bemoan our children and how it is unfair to rob them of gifts and celebration of the birth of Christ. We couldn't agree with them more! We have no greater desire than to see our families celebrate and give gifts to one another. However, we will do it when Yahweh commands us to and not when Satanically inspired traditions call us to. You will soon discover that our children get more gifts than children of the world and have more celebrations that you could have ever imagined.

There is nothing that Yahweh seems to desire more for his children than celebrations! He is the original giver of gifts and he admonishes us to be givers. He loves for our children to beam with smiles as they are showered with our love in whatever form we can give it. Therefore He has commanded seven times a year for us to celebrate. No one believes in celebration more than Him!

Exodus 10:9 - Moses answered, "We will go with our young and our old, with our sons and our daughters, and with our flocks and herds, because we are to CELEBRATE A FESTIVAL TO THE LORD."

Exodus 12:14 - This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall CELEBRATE IT AS A FESTIVAL TO THE LORD—a lasting ordinance

Exodus 12:47 - The whole community of Israel must CELEBRATE IT.

Exodus 23:14 - Three times a year you are to CELEBRATE A FESTIVAL TO ME

Numbers 9:2 - Have the Israelites CELEBRATE the Pass-over at the appointed time

Numbers 9:3 - CELEBRATE it at the appointed time

Note - “Do not celebrate it when you decide or when tradition decides - celebrate it at the EXACT times that I have ordained”

Numbers 29:12 - On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work. CELEBRATE A FESTIVAL to the Lord for seven days.

I call your attention to the Hebrew word for CELEBRATE and it is the word CHAGAG . . . Let me tell you first what CHAGAG DOES NOT MEAN! Sitting still with folded hands in holy reverence! Oh Contrare, it means the total opposite, THERE IS NO PARTY LIKE A YAH CALLED PARTY!

The word CHAGAG means the following:

Dancing, reeling to and fro, to move in a circle, to be giddy:—celebrate, dance.

Many first time visitors who attend our Sabbath meetings are quite surprised to see such a celebratory atmosphere.

Quite well was I trained by a beloved mentor, the late Ruth Ward Heflin, in the art of holy celebration.

We were taught to begin every Sabbath celebration with delightful rejoicing and dancing! She never allowed us to enter into a Holy Convocation without giving our offering of celebration unto our God. Only as we celebrate are we truly able to offer a pure sacrifice of thanksgiving unto Yahweh.

To this date, one of the hardest things that I have faced is getting people to celebrate. In the world and at parties of the world they have no problem celebrating with the music but for some reason when they come to a YAH CALLED PARTY, they freeze up.

Do you wonder why? Allow me to tell you! Because, Satan is good at what he does. He knows that the Sabbath and the Holy Days were designed to be celebrations so he turns them into funerals. He turns them into melancholy, halfhearted religious programs with no celebration whatsoever.

But, if we are going to celebrate then we must know what we are celebrating. When people go to a birthday party or a New Years party or an Anniversary party they know what they are celebrating. However, when the saints of Yahweh come to our appointed assemblies, no wonder they can't celebrate, they are completely unaware of what the celebration is all about. In the next few pages I wish to tell you what the Fall Festivals are all about and why we are to celebrate them .

There are two sets of Feast and they line up with the timing of agriculture and harvest. One set of feast are celebrated in the spring of the year and one set in the fall. Both sets correlate with the harvest times of Israel; the smaller harvest in the spring and the larger in the fall.

These are both seasons of great celebration. However, the purpose of this book is to deal with the Holy Day seasons of the fall and most particularly the Feast of Tabernacles or Sukkott.

The fall feast take place in the seventh month of Yahweh's Calendar. On the first day, as designated by the new moon of the seventh month, we celebrate the first feast of the fall festivals; the Feast of Trumpets or Shofars. Shortly thereafter in the same month, we celebrate the Feast of Atonement and then finally The Feast of Tabernacles and the 8th Day Feast or the Feast of the Last Great Day.

FEAST OF TRUMPETS OR SHOFAR
FEAST OF ATONEMENT
FEAST OF TABERNACLES
8TH DAY FEAST OR LAST GREAT DAY FEAST

“The Word became flesh and tabernaced among us”
(John 1:14)

Sukkot or Tabernacles is the season of our joy, an appropriate time to declare “joy to the world.” For we will show from here on out that our Messiah was most likely born during Tabernacles. Nowhere near Dec 25th... all lies!!!

YHWH (GOD) IS ALWAYS ON TIME

One of the things that I find most assuring about YHWH is this; HE CHANGES NOT! He abides by laws and rhythms and timing. What He will do in the future can be known by what He has done in the past.

All of the major events of the life of Christ line up perfectly with the annual Feast of Israel and therefore add Messianic meaning to these events. For example;

* CHRIST DIED AT PASSOVER

* CHRIST WAS BURIED DURING UNLEAVENED BREAD

* CHRIST FILLED HIS CHURCH AT FEAST OF FIRST FRUIT

Do you see the pattern? Do you notice with spiritual eyes the impeccable timeliness of the heavenly mysteries? Do you think that He plans to NOT be on time with all of the other yet fulfilled Feast of Israel? Of course He will be on time and thus the reason that He was born during one of the annual Feast of Israel, The Feast of Tabernacles. It was during this time of the year that all Jews came to Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Tabernacles and thus the reason why "There was no room for him in the Inn".

The Bible certainly teaches that Jesus was born in Bethlehem, but it does not state that Joseph and Mary arrived in that town just in time for her to deliver. In fact, this scenario is highly unlikely since it is doubtful that the two would attempt to make the arduous 70-mile trip from Nazareth in the final stages of her pregnancy. Also, Luke 2:6 implies that they were in Bethlehem for a while before Jesus was born (“while they were there, the days were completed”).

Second, the Bible makes no mention of any innkeeper who told them that the inn was full for the night. The reason we imagine this scenario is because the translators of most English versions have chosen the word “inn” to translate the Greek word καταλυμα (kataluma), which gives modern readers the wrong impression.¹ Jesus used this same Greek word in Luke 22:11 to refer to a “guest room.” This room is now known as the Upper Room—the scene of the Last Supper, the meal that Jesus ate with His disciples the night before His Crucifixion.

That may not sound convincing to most people who are familiar with the traditional telling of the Christmas account. But consider that the Greek language has a word for hotel or inn. In fact, Luke used it in Luke 10:34, when he wrote about the Good Samaritan who took the beaten man to the “inn” (pandocheion, πανδοχειον) and paid the “innkeeper” (pandochei, πανδοχει, v. 35) to care for the man.

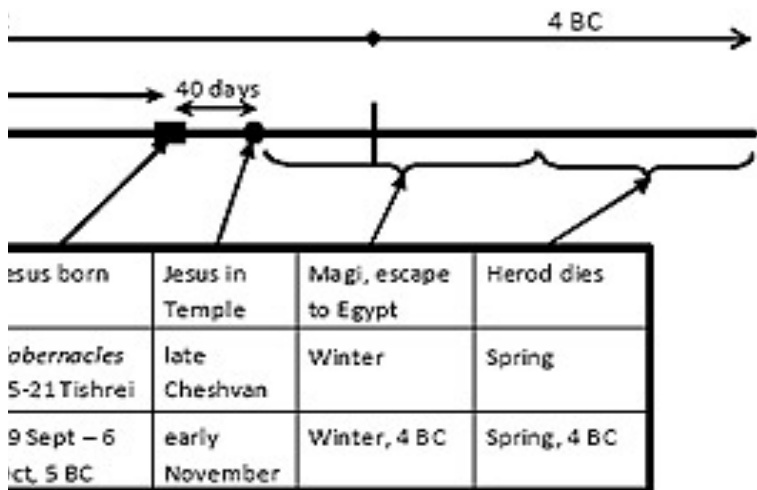

Since Luke was quite familiar with the proper term for inn, why didn’t he use it in the account of the birth of Jesus? The probable answer is that Joseph and Mary did not attempt to stay at an inn. The Bible states that there was no room for them in the kataluma, which would be better translated as “guest room.”

Joseph and Mary returned to Joseph’s ancestral home of Bethlehem because of the census (Luke 2:1–4).² As the census was proclaimed throughout the Roman Empire, many Jewish families would have needed to travel to Bethlehem during this time and lodged with relatives who lived in the town.

Joseph and Mary probably stayed with Joseph’s relatives in Bethlehem, but because of the large influx of people, the house would have been crowded and the kataluma (guest room) was full

Also, we must remember that the Hebrew word for manger is actually “Sukkah” and during the Feast of Tabernacles what would have been available in every yard in Bethlehem? You guessed it, a booth or tabernacle or Sukkah. Therefore, the Messiah was more probably born outside in a temporary dwelling, a sukkah, than in the feeding trough for animals.

THE HISTORICAL EVIDENCE

I think it is fair and not overly critical for us to admit that the date chosen by Constantine and Pope Julius I to celebrate the birth of Jesus was not based on good historical or biblical evidence.

Let's look for that overlooked evidence in the historical account of the birth of Jesus recorded by Dr. Luke.

I owe a special gratitude to Lion and Lamb ministries for much of their historical research.

Chart Jesus' Birth with me;

1) Our first clue is found in Luke 1:5. Here is how it reads in the Complete Jewish Bible:

“In the days of Herod, King of Y’hudah (Judea), there was a cohen (Jewish priest) named Z’kharyah (Zacharias) who belonged to the Aviyah (Abijah) division.”

The service of the Abijah division of priests was scheduled for the last two weeks of the fourth month of the Jewish religious calendar (15-29 Tammuz, June-July), according to the Talmud (rabbinic commentaries) and Qumran sources.²

Dr. Luke tells us that Zacharias was serving in the 2nd Jewish Temple in Jerusalem when he was chosen to enter the holy place to burn incense outside the Holy of Holies. The archangel, Gabriel, appeared to Zacharias and revealed that he and his barren wife, Elizabeth, would have a son named, John, who would precede and prepare the way for the Messiah.

He returned home after his two-week service, then his wife conceived, as Gabriel had prophesied. The earliest date for John's conception would be the 1st of Av (July).

2) In the 6th month (Kislev-Tevet, December) of Elizabeth's pregnancy, Gabriel visited, Mary, in Nazareth to announce: "You will become pregnant, you will give birth to a son, and you are to name Him Yeshua (Luke 1:31, CJB).

Gabriel also revealed to Mary that her relative, Elizabeth, was SIX-MONTHS PREGNANT. Elizabeth's sixth month included the celebration of the Jewish feast of Hanukkah, the "Feast of the Dedication" (John 10:22) connected with the rededication of the temple after the Maccabean revolt. Without delay, Mary hurried to visit Elizabeth (Luke 1:39), about a week's journey on foot from Nazareth.

3) When Mary arrived, Elizabeth greeted her: "How blessed is the child in your womb!” (Luke 1:42).

From this, we conclude that there was no delay between the time of Gabriel’s announcement to Mary and the conception of Yahshua. We can infer that the same was true for the conception of John. At most, only a few days passed between the announcement and the fulfillment of each of these two angelic prophecies.

4) Mary stayed with Elizabeth for three months, until John was born (probably during Pesach or Passover, 15-21 Nisan, April), circumcised on the eighth day, and given his prophesied name (Luke 1:57-80). One of the long-held Jewish traditions is that the prophet Elijah will return at Passover (Malachi 3:1; 4:5-6). Gabriel had prophesied to Zacharias that John would come “in the spirit and power of Eliyahu (Elijah)” (Luke 1:17, CJB).

5) Mary returned to Nazareth, where an angel reassured her betrothed husband: “Joseph), son of David, do not be afraid to take, Mary, home with you as your wife; for what has been conceived in her is from the Ruach HaKodesh (Holy Spirit). She will give birth to a son, and you are to name Him Y’shuahua, because He will save His people from their sins” (Matthew 1:20-21, CJB).

Emperor Augustus ordered a census that required Joseph to take Mary to Bethlehem where she gave birth to Jesus, probably during Sukkot, the Feast of Tabernacles, 15-21 Tishrei, September-October).

“The Word became a human being and lived [tabernacled] with us” (John 1:14).

6) The night of the birth of Jesus, an angel appeared with the angelic armies of heaven to announce the birth to the shepherds of Bethlehem (Luke 2:1-15). Perhaps there is a long forgotten connection with Michaelmas (“coming of Michael”) Day, the feast of Michael the Archangel, which is celebrated in some traditions (particularly in the United Kingdom) on the 29th of September. Michael is the leader of the angelic armies who hurls Lucifer (Satan, the Devil) down from heaven because of his treachery (Revelation 12:7).

7) Joseph and Mary presented Jesus at the Jewish Temple on the 40th day after His birth for the ceremony of Pidyon HaBen (redemption of the firstborn son). There He received the blessings of Shim'on (Simeon) and Hannah, two righteous Jewish prophets (Luke 2:22-38).

8) Magi from the east came (probably in Winter) to inquire of King Herod about the birth of Jesus. The head cohanim (Jewish priests) admitted that Messiah must be born in Bethlehem, so the Magi went there (three miles from Jerusalem) and found Joseph, Mary, and Jesus living in a house. They worshipped Him and gave Him gifts, then obeyed an angelic warning (probably Gabriel) to avoid revealing to King Herod the location of Jesus (Matthew 2:1-12).

9) After the Magi departed Bethlehem, an angel warned Joseph to take Mary and Jesus to Egypt to escape King Herod's attempt to murder Jesus. They left that same night (Matthew 2:13-15). King Herod ordered the slaughter of all boys in Bethlehem up to age two, but Joseph escaped with his family to Egypt (possibly the Sinai peninsula), where they remained until Herod's death (Matthew 2:16-18).

10) After King Herod's death, an angel appeared to Joseph to tell him it was safe to return home to Nazareth (Matthew 2:19-23). The Jewish historian Flavius Josephus recorded the death of the evil King Herod in the spring of 4 BC.³ I assume that Herod did not live long after the slaughter of the innocent boys of Bethlehem, and thus that the family of Jesus did not stay long in Egypt. Therefore, we can place the birth of Jesus on a fairly well constrained timeline.

DETERMINING THE DATE

If Jesus was born during Sukkot, the Feast of Tabernacles, (which began the 29th of September) in 5 BC, as we deduced from the evidence above, then His conception was probably during Hanukkah, possibly as late as the 25th of December in 6 BC. It is also possible that the Magi visited Bethlehem around the 25th of December in 5 BC, when Jesus would have been almost 3 months old.

'Anno Domini' (AD) dating was adopted in Western Europe during the 8th century. In 525 AD when the monk Dionysius Exiguus (Dennis the Little, meaning humble) calculated the year of Jesus' birth, he missed by about 3 years. We now have evidence that Herod died in 4 BC, probably less than a year after Jesus was born.

THE SIGNIFICANCE

Does it really matter when Jesus was born or when we celebrate Christmas? YES IT DOES— Only with this true knowledge can we dispel the lies that have long been associated with His birth. Only with this knowledge can we prove the reasons why we refuse to celebrate with the pagans on their high holy day. Only with this knowledge can we refute the age old argument “Well, no one really knows when He was born so we will just join in with the rest of the world on Dec 25th”

It IS important to consider the evidence God gave us and to place it in a proper Jewish context so that we can better understand the foundation of our faith. For example, the information I have presented in this article makes it clear that an important prophecy about the Messiah was fulfilled in the life of Jesus. That prophecy is found in Genesis 49:10 — “The scepter will not pass from Judah, nor the ruler’s staff from between his legs, until Shiloh [Messiah] comes, and it is He whom the peoples will obey.” Second Temple rabbis understood this as a Messianic prophecy.

In about 7 AD, the Romans abolished the power of the Jewish Sanhedrin Council in Judah to pronounce the death penalty. Furthermore, Herod was the first king of Israel who was not a descendent of the tribe of Judah. However, Jesus had already been born in 5 BC, before the scepter and staff (power) departed from Judah.

There is a deeper meaning and real significance to the conclusion that Jesus was probably born during the Feast of Tabernacles, thus bringing partial fulfillment to the prophetic type of that important feast established by God. Tabernacles (booths) are temporary, insecure dwellings and emphasize our reliance on God's grace. So also the temporary human body in which the Son of God dwelled among us demonstrated what total reliance on God can accomplish.

Just as He tabernacled with us during the Feast of Tabernacles nearly 2,000 years ago. We believe that He will stick with this same pattern and rhythm and tabernacle with us once again in bodily form in the glorious, golden kingdom soon to come to our planet.

YOU HAVE HEARD THE TRUTH . . . WHAT YOU WILL DO WITH TRUTH IS UP TO YOU!!!

THE RHYTHM OF HEAVEN!

HAVE YOU EVER WATCHED TWO PEOPLE DANCE AND ONE OF THEM COULDN'T GET IN SYNC OR RHYTHM WITH THEIR PARTNER?

WHAT'S THE RESULTS? CHAOS

This is exactly what Yahweh's church looks like here on earth; completely out of sync with the rhythms of heaven when we keep the holidays of Rome rather than the Holy Days of Yah (God).

The earthly congregation is called to be the mirror of heavenly things; working in perfect unity and in perfect timing with Yahweh Himself; she should be dancing to His tune! However, because of inherited lies and misinformation she has begun dancing to the tune of a different lover; the traditions of the church rather than the eternal Word of Yahweh.

Every year, the Father commands us to gather into Holy Convocation as an assembly and to set apart High Holy Days for divine appointments with Him and for His eternal purposes. However, year after year the church gathers and celebrates at the command and at the music of a different lover; the church of Babylon. Totally forgetting that the Heavenly Father has set a rhythm by the moon, the sun and the stars for us to align ourselves with each year. He has a set schedule of divine appointments with His earthly bride.

He has set a heavenly clock with heavenly music for us to get in sync with yet we choose the clock and the music of another, thereby committing spiritual fornication! Thus the reason that the church has become powerless on the earth in so many respects. We are out of sync with the heavenly schedule. It is our intention in this writing to teach you that schedule and hopefully prod you to dance to a different tune,.
