

ESTHER REVEALED

Sermon Transcription Series

Shortly after we received the revelation of Samson in the last sermon, I knew that wasn't the end of the unveiling of these Old Testament Biblical characters and their end time meanings. We knew that there was more coming that He was about to unravel for us, because that's the way the Father works with us all, He gives "here a little and there a little". The more we appreciate one revelation that more quickly He will give us the next one.

He will unveil something in one area to see if we will bite on it and then all of a sudden the spirit of revelation will come more and more. For some reason, the Father is bringing me to all these Old Testament characters to show me end time Remnant Israel.

This message came to me when I heard the voice of Yahweh speak to me and tell me to go get something. What He told me to get was very special to me; it was a treasure that I cherish. In the last Ten years I have pulled this treasure out only twice. I have it hidden in my home; it's hidden better than my most financially valuable treasures. It's more precious to me than all the silver and gold. If anyone ever takes this treasure that I'm talking to you about, it would devastate me.

The Father spoke to me and told me to go get this Bible, that I've only held in my hands two times in the last Ten years. I don't touch it for a reason. The reason I don't touch this Bible is because when my hands touch it, it brings back a lot of painful memories. My grandmother sent me twenty-five dollars in prison when I first got there, and I bought this Bible at the prison commissary for nineteen dollars. If you were to open this Bible, you'll find out that while I was in prison, the Holy Father told me the name of this ministry and I wrote it in the flyleaf of this Bible: First Harvest Ministries.

That was the first thing I wrote in this Bible. As I was sitting in prison, receiving the gentle correction of the Father; sitting with prisoners that were cursing like sailors, fighting over Ramen noodles and slamming the table. All the while, in this midst of this shameful place in my personal life decades ago; the Lord was talking to me, and when He told me the name of the ministry, I said, “What ministry? I’m a failure. I’m a joke.” It was then that Yahweh said, “The name of your ministry is going to be First Harvest Ministries.” So I just wrote it down late at night when I was by myself. I told the Lord, “But Lord, I’m supposed to get twenty years in here!” That’s what the prosecutor had threatened me with. When I told the Lord that, He told me the next line, and I wrote it right above First Harvest Ministries.

He said, “True overcomers have the unique ability to exist in the present while already living in the future.” This is the first time I was hearing about Overcomers in my spirit. I was in a prison and planning my ministry; and I’m wondering why Yahweh has given this thought to me about True Overcomers.

Let me explain something to you: this ministry did not exist until then. We have a stone in my garden that says, First Harvest Ministries Established 2014, but Yahweh said, “No, it was established on the date I gave you the Word.” It was 2009 when He told me that “True overcomers have the unique ability and are forced to exist in the present while they are already living in their future.”

When I wrote that down, Yahweh said, “You are not in prison. Your body is in prison but you are already building First Harvest Ministries.” He said, “The moment I put it in your mind, it was already done.”

Now right beneath it—this part has not come to pass—He said, “You are going to start—” I want you to understand where I’m at in this moment of these divine conversations. When everybody else is trying to just survive prison and get money on their books; here I am trying to build an entire organization in a prison cell while most everyone else was trying to find out what’s for lunch.

As I began to flip through this old worn out prison Bible again it became more and more clear the reason He wanted me to get this Bible open. As I began to flip through it, I had all the names of the people that I prayed for every day while I was there, and every revelation that I had was written on every page in this Bible.

Everything Yahweh ever told me and anything I've ever taught you is in this Bible. As a matter of fact, it was in this prison cell. It didn't come from anybody but the Lord. As He was revealing to me the truth of His word. I am writing the revelations He has given me on every single page of the Bible.

When I first got out of prison, I went to Mother Gattie's church in Houston, Texas. I was homeless when I came out of prison. I had gone to live with Dr. Seal because she was the only one who would have me because the family I left behind had moved on. That is why I Love her the way I do; I never forget those that are loyal to me—ever. I don't care how old she gets, it doesn't matter. Nobody was there for me. Nobody. She took me in the back room of her little home and that was where I lived.

I wrote The Dream Team while I was in prison, and when I got to her place, she let me use her computer because I didn't have one, and I typed out The Dream Team on that computer. If you ever wonder why I am faithful to certain people, that's why: because I owe her for the ministry that I have now.

She invested in this ministry. While I was there Mother Gattie said to me, "Brother Vaughn, I don't know why the Lord said it, but He told me to tell you three things: He's already built you a home that is paid for and He will give you the keys to it."

Now remember, I was homeless. She didn't just say, "He's going to get you a nice house to stay in." No, no no: "It's built and it's waiting for you. It's already been built." And she didn't stop there. She said, "He said to tell you there's a church building that is already yours and it's paid for and the key's waiting on you." She started to walk off and then she said, "Oh wait a minute! And He has custom designed you a wife." And Mother Gattie moved her hands to show a shapely form and said, "Built just like you like it."

I'm here to tell you that it wasn't five to six months after that prophecy that every word of it came to pass. Let me tell you why—because the message that's going forth from this ministry was established before the building, the house, or anything else.

Yahweh established the message in my heart to deliver to the whole world. That's why when people fight against this ministry, they don't understand that I have the ability to exist in the present while they're attacking me. Do you know how I can do it? I've already seen the future and they aren't in it. Do you understand? My enemies are not in that future. I already know where this thing's going and no enemies are there. Where it's going, nobody is there who's not supposed to be.

While I was in prison they said, "You've got the strongest mind of anybody we've ever seen." No, I wasn't living there; I was already preaching to you. I was already standing right here, back then. You've got to learn to project yourself into the destiny, rather than in the drama you're currently in. You've got to see what Yahweh says. You've got to believe what Yahweh has promised you. I was never in prison one day. They had my body, but they didn't have my mind. No, no, Yahweh had my mind. Overcomers don't live in the present, we live in the promises.

When I would get bad news, I would go back and read what Yahweh told me. Yahweh said, "It's going to be called First Harvest Ministries." Today it reaches around the globe. Today people are fed by this ministry around the globe because I refused to live in my present.

As I was flipping through the Bible, I came to something that blew my mind. I came to another revelation. This revelation ties in perfectly with the Samson revelation but it was given to me nine years ago.

It was a revelation in advance of what Yahweh was going to do in the end times.

We're going to the book of Esther to find that this is another end time revelation. We have all read it on the P'shat level.

[See Appendix A for an explanation of the levels of PARDES (PRDS) – P'SHAT, REMEZ, D'RASH and SOD.]

Now we're going to read it on the Sod level. Samson has nothing to do with Samson. The book of Esther [Hadassah in Hebrew] has nothing to do with Esther at all.

We're going to read through Esther but I'm taking my text from Chapter 1 Verses 10-12.

(All Biblical quotes are taken from the Book of Yahweh.)

On the seventh day, when the king was in high spirits because of the wine, he commanded Mehuman, Bizthan, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven eunuchs who personally served King Xerxes, 11 To bring Queen Vashti before the king's presence, wearing the crown of the kingdom, so he might display her beauty to the people and the officials, for she was beautiful to behold. 12 But the Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command delivered by his eunuchs. Because of this, the king was furious, and his anger burned within him.

I want you to understand that Esther has nothing to do with Esther. It is an end time prophecy of the end time House of Israel. If you've ever wondered why this story was put in the Bible—It's a beautiful story but it really doesn't help me personally nor does it really add or take away from my life.

[Not on the P'shat level it doesn't, but when you get on the Sod level, all of a sudden you realize it was put there for those who "have eyes to see and ears to hear."]

It starts out with a king and this king wanted his church—his wife—to come see him on the Sabbath day. She was his wife. She was saved. She had the Holy Ghost. She was the Church. The king said, "I want to display my wife to the whole world. I want the whole world to see an obedient wife." That's every man's desire: an obedient wife.

He wanted everybody to see how obedient his wife was so here's what he did. He said, "Tell her to present herself on the seventh day of the week. Tell her not to come on the first day and don't come on the sixth day. You tell my true wife—my true bride—to show up here on the seventh day."

He loved Vashti but she didn't love him. He adored Vashti but she didn't adore him. Now read with me—He commanded in verse ten, seven eunuchs to go and get her. That's the seven spirits of Yahweh.

If you read that verse, they are sitting before the throne. They are waiting on the command of the king. The king has commanded the Seven Spirits of Yahweh to go get my wife and present her to me in the end time. This has nothing to do with Esther. This has nothing to do with Vashti. THESE ARE SYMBOLS OF TRUTH. He sent the Seven Spirits of Yahweh, which is the Holy Spirit, to go find his wife. And here's how you will prove she's my wife: she'll come forth on the seventh day.

The name Esther means "secret." There you go—(that's the Sod level.) The true bride is hidden; she is a secret. In verse twelve the queen refused to come at the commandments. Notice she was wearing the king's clothes. She was laid up in his bed. She was getting healed and getting filled with the Holy Ghost. She was getting the blessings and the prophetic words. She just wouldn't obey the commandment and the king was furious and his anger burned within him.

That's not Vashti; THAT'S THE FIVE FOOLISH VIRGINS. Vashti is the five foolish virgins—they were not ready when the call came.

Esther 1:19 If it pleases the king, let a royal decree be sent from him, and let it be recorded in the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so it may not be altered or changed in any way, that Vashti will never again be brought into the presence of King Xerxes. Then let the king give her royal position as Queen of the Empire to another who is better than she.

Now here's the day we're living in right now. Yahweh has called for His Bride. The one that said she was His bride but failed the seventh day test. This is more powerful than you understand. The one that said, I'm the Queen, I'm the Church, I've got the Holy Ghost. The one that said, I've been married to the king; I've got the crown, I've got the big church in town, I've got the prestige—I'm the queen.

You were, but then the revelation of the seventh day came forth and you rejected it. You go tell Vashti about the seventh day and whatever her response is to that commandment, this is a test commandment.

The seventh day is a test! If you can't pass that one, then you can't pass any of them. AND LET THE KING GIVE HER ROYAL CROWN TO ANOTHER THAT IS BETTER THAN SHE. This has nothing to do with Esther!

His servants told Him: Your majesty, this bride won't work; she wouldn't come on the seventh day. So, Your Majesty, you need to make a proclamation so the first will be last and the last will be first.

Vashti represents natural Israel—natural Judah. She was invited first. But I want you to make a proclamation, Your Majesty, that the crown she's been wearing all over town, prancing with her church clothes on; prancing with her steeple to the sky; prancing with her prestige and her honor; You tell her she can keep the church but she's going to lose the crown.

What is the crown? The spiritual authority!!

Yahweh gave this to me. This revelation was given to me before I even knew the difference between Israel and Judah; before I knew any of that. I had no idea what He was revealing to me was for the end times, and it goes right along with Samson.

Esther 1:20 Then when the king's decree is proclaimed through all his great empire, all wives will honor their own husbands, whether they are mighty or insignificant.

He sent letters to all the churches in all the provinces.

Hadassah 1:22 Then he sent letters to all the king's provinces, each letter written in the script of the individual province, to every people in their own language, proclaiming in each man's dialect that the man should be the head of his own house.

He said, If I don't do this to Vashti, all the women in the kingdom will get out of order. THESE WOMEN REPRESENT CHURCHES. All the churches will think it's okay to live in the king's house without coming on the seventh day. They'll all think it's all right. He said, I've got to take her authority away or else she'll keep having church and everything will be out of order.

He said, I want you to send a message that we're about to get rebellion out of Israel. He said, Let every man bear the rule in his house. Let every pastor get back to the commandments. Let every church get back under obedience to your husband—the Word of Yahweh.

This is the message that's going to go out at the end times—the voice of Elijah: GET YOUR HOUSE IN ORDER. EVERY MAN, GET IT IN ORDER.

Esther 2:7 Mordecai had brought up his cousin Hadassah, for she had neither father nor mother. The young woman was lovely in form and features. When her father and mother died, Mordecai had accepted her as his own daughter.

He brought up Hadassah—that's Esther, his uncle's daughter. I thought this was interesting: the moment we get rid of the old church order, he brings up Hadassah,—something that was hidden, something that was secret. It remains a secret while it grows up. Nobody even knows we're out there.

As soon as it was time, he brought up Hadassah; he brought up a secret girl. What I think is interesting about her is that she had neither father nor mother. She was Mordecai's niece and a natural Jew, but somehow the story didn't have to tell us this part and most people would read right over it; but not yours truly because I heard a hint [a Remez, a D'rash. Then the Sod came.]

I asked why He had to put in that she had no father or mother. He said, Because this new church I'm building—even though it's naturally descended from Israel—IT'S TOTALLY DISCONNECTED: it has no identity. They are the Lost Tribes.

Esther was lost. She was a natural Israelite but she was a lost Israelite. She had no connection to her identity—the Lost Tribes of Israel. And notice who raises her to prepare her to take over the Christian church, Vashti's church: Mordecai, a Jew—a Torah observer. He raises up the Lost Tribes which are you and I, and brings her to the Torah. Mordecai is the symbol of the Torah. And she comes under the Torah. Let's read.

Eshter 2:9 Now the young woman pleased him and he was kindly disposed toward her; so he promptly provided her with her beauty treatments and her proper daily allowance of food. Then seven selected maids were provided for her from the king's palace, and he moved her and her maids to the best quarters in the house of the women.

I noticed something: I heard the hint. When Yahweh raises up this end-time bride, He will quickly give her what she needs for purification, and she will be purified by the number seven. It's always seven because what is going to purify the bride is the seventh day and the seventh month and the seventh hour and the seventh trumpet. Vashti will never recognize seven. Esther is covered with seven. He gave her seven maidens.

Esther 2:12 Now each young woman would take her turn going in to King Xerxes after she had completed twelve moons on a beauty regimen. This was the prescribed beauty regimen for the women: six moons of treatment with oil of myrrh, then six moons of treatment with perfumes and cosmetics.

She had been there with the king for twelve months. TWELVE. She went in to be purified by the number seven but she had to endure the number twelve. Twelve is the number of divine government.

Before the king would ever accept her, it would take twelve months of submitting to the king—twelve months of obedience, twelve months of submission. Twelve months! Twelve apostles; it would take twelve foundations; twelve gates to the city. Notice she's there for twelve months. What is twelve times twelve? One hundred forty-four thousand.

There's a church that doesn't stay there for twelve whole months. Her name is Vashti. Her name is Christianity. Her name is Babylon.

She'll get in the castle but she won't be purified by seven until she submits to twelve. That's the only way you'll touch that seven. You can always tell the fake church: she'll reject the Seventh Day.

Hadassah 2:16 So Hadassah was taken to King Xerxes, to his royal quarters, in the Tenth Moon, the moon Tebeth in the seventh year of his reign.

She was taken to the king in the Tenth Month: the Ten Commandments. She was ready for the king when she came under those ten in the seventh year of his reign. In that one verse you have tens, sevens, twelves all over again and you're just going to skip over them?

It was not only the seventh day, but it was also the seven thousandth year. When did he call the bride to his presence? On the beginning of his seventh year: His seventh thousand-year reign. Do you not see it, children? She could not come up to the seventh "thousand-year reign" until she had gone to the seven purifications to the twelve months under the Ten Commandments and then she was ready for the seventh thousand-year.

Hadassah 2:17 The king loved Hadassah more than all his other wives, and she endeared him to herself and won his acceptance more than all the other virgins, so he set the royal crown upon her head and made her his queen in the place of Vashti.

She obtained grace and favor in his sight, more than all the other churches, so he set the royal crown upon her head and made her queen. THAT'S WHEN WE ESTABLISH THE KINGDOM ON EARTH: WHEN WE—INSTEAD OF VASHTI—GET OUR CROWN.

You know, that old queen who's making fun of little Esther who doesn't even know who her daddy and mommy are, SHE STILL HAS THE ROBES OF ROYALTY BUT SHE DOESN'T KNOW THE RULES OF ROYALTY. She's still got the praise team that's much fancier than anything we have; she's got it all but she forgot the seventh day and we got that right! Now let's read verse eighteen to find out what happens after we get our crown.

Esther 2:18 Then the king proclaimed a great marriage feast, in honor of Hadassah, for all his officials and nobles. He proclaimed a holiday in the provinces and gave gifts worthy of the king's generosity.

Have you ever heard of the Marriage Supper of the Lamb? Have you ever heard of the Millennial Reign? This has nothing to do with Esther or Vashti or Mordecai. [Get in the Sod level]—this is the End Time Church! Two queens but only one's got a crown. Two churches but only one gets a mandate. He made it under all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast. Then he made a release to the province and gave gifts. I read a prophecy about this party. I read it in the book of Joel, chapter two: that in that seventh year of the reign He was going to pour out His Spirit on all flesh with some gifts. There's coming a day when everyone is going to get the Holy Ghost. Did you know that? But not until we have a queen. Not until we have a queen who's ready. Don't ever ask why Yeshua has not returned, because we haven't returned yet. We must return before He returns.

Now let's read verse twenty. There's something I want you to see.

Esther 2:20 And Hadassah had not yet revealed her race or her religion, just as Mordecai had told her, for Hadassah obeyed the instructions of Mordecai as she had done when she was being raised by him.

Esther had not yet shown her people who she was. Esther obeyed Mordecai: she followed the commandments of the Torah. Nobody knew who she was. Mordecai said, "Don't tell anyone you are an Israelite. Just know you're one." MORDECAI IS THE TORAH and he brought her under the commandments and told her not to tell anyone that she was an Israelite, but to keep who she was in her heart; know who she was and hold it to herself.

Don't tell anyone you're an Israelite because the devil, Satan, has one job: to destroy Israel. In his dumb mind he thinks only the natural born are Israel. So don't tell on yourself. STAY A SECRET. Stay hidden and just know who you are. While the devil is trying to kill the people over in Palestine, here you are getting ready to wear a crown. He doesn't know anything about you.

Hadassah 3:1 After these things King Xerxes promoted Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, elevating him in his office and making him the highest ruler among the nobles.

Uh Oh... I'm hearing a hint. There was a man named Haman and he was an Agagite and the king set this Agagite above all the other principalities. I want to show you the only thing that will destroy the end-time bride. The end-time bride can be destroyed and I'm going to prove it to you. Mordecai tells Esther that if she doesn't do her job, Yahweh will send them deliverance through somebody else.

This verse that talks about the man Haman, has nothing to do with Haman. THIS IS LUCIFER because he has been set above all the other princes of the power of the air. He is the high prince of the air. He is the prince of all these other princes.

The big deal about Haman is that he was an Agagite. Esther was about to lose out because of an Agagite in her life. Let me refresh your memory.

Let's go back to the days of Samuel the prophet. He told Saul, "Go to the Amalekites and kill everything. Get rid of all the sin. Get rid of all the rebellion. Get rid of everything that opposes me." And they did except for King Agag, who had children. THEY WERE AGAGITES. If they had been commandment keepers and obeyed the command, then you couldn't kill this end time-bride. But because they ignored the commandment, now even the power of the end-time bride was in jeopardy because of an Agagite.

When Yahweh tells you to get something out of your life, if you don't kill it at the root, you will never, never, never become what Yahweh has called you to be. It will come back to haunt you. It will come back to say, HOLD ON ESTHER—YES, YAHWEH HAD A PLAN FOR YOU, BUT BECAUSE YOU DIDN'T LAY IT ALL DOWN, PUT IT ALL DOWN, ESTHER, EVEN YOU ARE NOT WORTHY.

The reason they had to keep Esther's identity quiet, is so that this Agagite wouldn't know about her. He didn't know she was an Israelite. He thought she was a Gentile. Then Mordecai, the Torah said, Shhhh. I'm going to reveal to you—you're not a Christian, you're not a Baptist; you're really an Israelite. Shhhh. It'll get you in trouble. Hold on now; it'll get you in a lot of trouble so just put it in your heart. Ponder those things in your heart! You don't have to blast it. Don't put it on your profile. You've just got to know who you are.

He came to the king and he had a plan.

Hadassah 3:8 After the lot was cast indicating the day and the moon, Haman brought the matter before the king, and said; There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in every province in your kingdom. Their Laws are different from all other people's, and they do not even obey the king's commands! Because of this, it is not proper for the king to allow them to continue.

Here comes Lucifer, and he said to the king, There's a certain people. (I'M GLAD TO SAY I'M ONE OF THEM.)

He said, There's a certain people — scattered. Some watch my sermons live. Some of them are in Texas, some in Tennessee. Some are in North Carolina, some in South Carolina. Some are in Louisiana. There's a certain people and they're scattered. They're not all in one place. They're not all here locally. They're not all part of the local church. They're scattered and their laws are different from all the other people.

Your Majesty, they don't even celebrate Christmas like us. Your Majesty, they don't even go to Mardi Gras like we do. There's a certain people who are not like other people. He said, these people have some weird stuff going on. They don't even eat catfish, Your Honor. They don't eat pork chops, Your Honor. These people are a strange lot.

[I'm on that Sod level now.] And neither do they keep the king's law. If the king says, SHUT DOWN FOR COVID, they go to church. Oh, Your Majesty, you told them to wear a mask and they're over there making fun of everybody wearing masks. They're not like other people. They've got their own thing going. They've got their own little ways.

Hadassah 3:10 So the king removed his signet ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of the Yahdaim.

The king took the ring from his hand and gave it to Lucifer — to his left hand. Take my authority and go do whatever it takes to wear them down. Go and destroy them. Do what you want to; just don't take their lives—go and torment their lives.

Don't you see, Haman couldn't have done it without the king's ring. Satan can't touch you without the king's ring. Never. That's why all you people that are rebuking the devil...What are you doing? Why are you rebuking the devil for the Lord's work? Instead, turn and give thanks in all things and you won't have to worry about the devil. Just give thanks in all things. I pay very little attention to the devil, and I get nervous when people in this church want to give attention to the devil, because I'm too busy thanking an awesome Yahweh to be distracted by a little, bitty devil.

I'm telling you, if you go to these deliverance conferences, you're worshiping Satan more than you worship Yahweh. Oh, yes you do. I never preach on the devil unless it's to tell you he's a servant to Yahweh and the enemy of the Jews.

Hadassah 3:13 The letters were dispatched by couriers throughout all of the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate all the Yahdaim—every man and boy, every woman and child—in a single day, the thirteenth day of the Twelfth Moon, the moon Adar, and to plunder their possessions.

I want to explain how this king represents Yahweh when he's allowing such evil. I'll tell you why. Until he gets that evil, Esther can't show up. It's got to get that bad to get that good. Don't ever question Yahweh—serve Him; submit yourself to Him.

Hadassah 4:11 All of the king's officials, and even the people of the king's provinces, know that any man or woman who goes into the inner court to the king, without having first been summoned, that there is one penalty: be put to death. The only exception to that penalty is for the king to extend the gold scepter to him, and only then may he live. And I have not been summoned to come to the king's presence for the past thirty days.

Here's what Mordecai told the end time Church: Because you didn't get rid of the Agagite years ago, then shall their enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place. Here's what he said: If you don't get rid of your Agagite, Yahweh will move you and bring in somebody else who's ready to submit to the ministry, ready to submit to the Word, ready to submit to the message. Don't think that you are submitting to the message.

Oh, I Love this message!

You don't even know the beginning of this message! This message is total submission, total surrender to your authority.

Hadassah 5:1 On the third day, Hadassah dressed in her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, in front of the king's hall. The king was seated on his throne in the throne room, facing the entrance to the court.

Why does it say the third day? BECAUSE THE THIRD DAY IS THE SEVENTH DAY.

Yashua came on the fourth day. Count forward two days and that brings you to the sixth day. Count forward three days and that brings you to the seventh day. Remember, in the book of Hosea, they prophesied after two days He will resurrect us on the third day. THE THIRD DAY IS THE SEVENTH DAY. On the seventh day this church is going to have a new body and a new robe and a new name and a new ring on this third day.

Hadassah 7:4 For I and my people have been sold for destruction, for death, and annihilation. Had we been sold as male and female slaves, I would never have said anything, for then such a minor disappointment would not have justified disturbing the king.

Here the queen comes before the king, here at the resurrection. She says, "We are sold." In other words, all of creation is in bondage, groaning and travailing until now. Paul said, All of creation has been sold to Haman—to Satan. He's got the king's ring and he's got us all. But remember, the Bride is also Priest unto Yahweh. Now she's not a bride, now she's a priest coming before Yahweh on that last day, now talking about the people. She said, "They're all in trouble, Lord. They've been groaning until now. I and my people are to be destroyed; to be slain and to perish."

Hadassah 7:5 Then King Xerxes exclaimed to Hadassah; Who is it? Where is he who has dared do such a thing?

We know the king already knew the answer.

Hadassah 7:6 Hadassah answered him, saying; An enemy and an adversary! This wicked man, Haman! Then Haman was terrified in the presence of the king and queen.

Esther said, this adversary the enemy is Lucifer. Then, Haman—Lucifer—became afraid. Not only before the king, but before the king and the queen. The Bible said, Now the Spirit and the Bride come before the king and the queen. You've got two to deal with now. You only had Him but we grew up and we got under the commandments. We have a crown. We come forth as the First Harvest, to lift our hands before the Father and say, What about the rest of creation? WE KNOW YOU FOUND US; WE KNOW WE ARE FIRST HARVEST, BUT WHAT ABOUT THEM? They're in trouble too. We will intercede for them.

And the Father said, where is old Lucifer, anyway? — and notice what He does. Remember what happens after Atonement? Feast of Shouting, Feast of Trumpets, Azazel, arrest warrant. Why is Haman getting scared? Because the king just sent out the arrest warrant so now Haman is scared of the king and the queen because the king isn't going to arrest him—the queen is going to arrest him.

Romans 16:20 And the Father of peace will crush Satan under your feet shortly. The mercy of our King, Yahshua Messiah, be with you. The scripture says, Satan shall be bruised under your feet, shortly—the queen's feet.

Don't you see why the Lord lets the devil beat up on you a lot? He needs you to get good and mad so you can pay it all back. Whose feet is the Lord going to use? The queen's feet! Go ahead Haman, walk on the queen...keep walking on the queen because it's us who's going to walk on you. The Bible says you'll be ashes under our feet.

Hadassah 7:8 When the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, he saw Haman fallen on the couch where Hadassah was reclining. Then the king said; Will he also violate the queen while she is with me in the house? As soon as these words were spoken by the king, they covered Haman's face.

THE BANQUET HALL IS THE MARRIAGE SUPPER OF THE LAMB—that's the Passover meal. I told you Passover is not fulfilled. There it is right there in verse eight. After he marries her, they go and have Passover—the cup of wine. And where is Satan? He has fallen at the mercy of the queen. Listen to what happened: As the word went out of the king's mouth, they arrested Lucifer. The queen did it. The queen arrested Lucifer.

Hadassah 8:1 That same day King Xerxes gave Hadassah the entire estate of Haman, the enemy of the Yahdaim. And Mordecai came into the presence of the king, for Hadassah had informed him of their relationship.

What day? The Sabbath day: The Millennial Reign. The Marriage Supper. On that day, the king gave the kingdoms of Lucifer. Notice, He didn't give the kingdoms of this world to Yahshua. He gave them to the queen. That's why the Bible says heirs and joint heirs. Do you understand that what Satan owns really belongs to you?

It's coming to you. He took all of Haman's property. He took Russia, China and Canada and America and gave it to this little girl that was raised up under the Torah and pleased the king on the seventh day. AND HE GAVE TO THAT LITTLE QUEEN, ALL THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD.

The kingdoms of this world will become the kingdoms of Yahshua and His Bride. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Hadassah 8:17 Also in every province and city, wherever the king's command and decree was proclaimed, the Yahdaim had joy and gladness, feasting and celebrating. Many of the people of the land, the Gentiles, professed to be Yahdaim, for the fear of the Yahdaim fell upon them.

In every nation and in every city—Waveland—wherever the king's commandment came, the Jews had joy and gladness. They had a feast—and somebody say, a good day. The Sabbath day is a good day. The seventh Thousand Day is a good day.

All these other days are evil. All these other days are bad but when the queen rises, it's going to be a good day.

I want you to notice the next line...this is my favorite line of all. AND MANY PEOPLE OF THE LAND—THE GENTILES—BECAME ISRAEL. It wasn't about the first harvest. That was the starting point but, on that day, ALL THE PEOPLE WILL BECOME ISRAEL. Do you see it? Do you see the whole story and what it was about?

Hadassah 9:22 As the days when the Yahdaim gained relief from their enemies, in the moon which was turned from sorrow to joy, from mourning to celebrating. He wrote them to observe these days as days of feasting and joy, and of sending food portions to each other and giving to the poor.

You see? There's your coming rest. What did Paul say in Hebrews Chapter three and four? Unless you fail to come into that rest, he said there's a rest coming for the queen. And the month was turned unto them from sorrow to joy and from evil to a good day. All those other days were suffering. All those other days were children dying from drugs. All those other days were addictions and world wars and all those days were bad, but when the queen rises, it's going to turn into a good day.

That day is almost upon us, beloved. Let me show you what's going to happen on that good day. You're going to start calling the Sabbath day that good day. Listen to what's going to happen.

Hadassah 9:25 But when the Queen Hadassah came before the king, the king gave a written decree that the evil scheme which Haman had devised against the Yahdaim should be returned upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

When Esther came before the king, he demanded by letters that the wicked devices that were devised against Yahweh's people, be returned and reversed on their own heads. WE ARE ABOUT TO HAVE A REVIVAL OF REVERSAL! The Bible said when this queen stands up, when she rises, the reversal will go forth from her mouth and everything will be revised. Everything is going to be undone—everything he's done to you. Everything will be undone. It's going to be a good day.

APPENDIX A: EXPLANATION OF PARDES (PRDS)

Pardes (paradise in Hebrew) is the four levels of biblical interpretation: PRDS. (Vowels are added to PRDS to make a word out of it.)

The first letter of Pardes is ‘P’ which is P’shat. P’shat means “plain,” just like it’s written. Whatever it says, that’s what it is: plain, surface; that’s P’shat.

The second letter of Pardes is ‘R’ which is Remez and means “hint.” For those that have ears to hear the Spirit, when you’re reading the P’shat, you’ll get a hint and the hint–Remez–is telling you to read it again. You feel a little hit in your spirit that says, “You know what, I know that is what it says, but I feel like it’s saying something else there.”

That leads you to the third level of Bible study: the D’rash level, which means “searching.” You are reading the P’shat and you get the Remez and it drives you to research further. It leads you to open the old concordance and start comparing scriptures to scriptures. Now you’re getting ready to go past the P’shat. Once you get past the D’rash level and you’ve done your research and you’re starting to connect some dots, then suddenly you come to Sod level, which means “hidden.”

The reason people cannot follow my teachings and the teachings of others like me is because they are addicted to the P’shat. “I’m reading what it says and that’s what it says.” But it’s not what it says! It says that but it’s calling you into the Sod: the hidden level.

The Bible says that for the Overcomer, they would eat of the hidden manna of the Word. The thirtyfold believer eats the manna–the P’shat–but there’s another group of people that receive the hidden manna of Yahweh’s Word. The Father is hiding this Book from the world!

There is a group of people that Yahweh is calling to come deeper; to see something in the Word.
