Part 3

- Prayer is the process by which God's will comes to pass on Earth.
- The problem is that people tend to pray only for specific individuals rather than praying for all as God desires.
- Prayer must be based on truth rather than emotions to be effective.
- Prayer based on the will of God, as found in the Bible, becomes powerful and effective.
- Many people prefer lies with slippery slopes over truth with rough edges, leading them to be offended by truth from ministers who boldly speak it.
- A ministry with rough edges often signifies the presence of truth, as they prioritize delivering God's message over seeking approval or popularity.
