

The Sacred Simplicity of the Sabbath

Pastor Vaughn, Chapter Six

Before the Fall

The Sabbath is not a response to sin,
for sin had not yet come
to that beautiful garden of Eden.
There was nothing man ran from.

To celebrate a completion,
the Sabbath was revealed in perfection.
Set apart in an undivided world
not yet needing correction.

Yahweh displayed His perfect peace
in a perfect harmony.
A divine pattern for man,
the rhythm of destiny.

Before there was rebellion,
the garden was filled with rest.
Until the serpent spoke to Eve,
putting mankind to the test.

When sin entered the world,
the Sabbath did not cease.
Yahweh had planned a safe place
for man to rest in peace.

The Sabbath represents our hope of ultimate restoration.
We welcome its reprieve
from a world of fear and frustration.

Donna Jean DeBard

7/3/25