

The Royal Law

(Pastor Vaughn, Sabbath Service 2/14/25)

Matthew 22:39 "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

There is a place of safety that can be had by all who want to rule and reign, it's called "The Royal Law".

Far beyond the 10 Commandments
and the Holy Days,
it's a place reserved for only those who love Yah's ways.

The Royal Law is inclusive,
it covers everyone.
There's no excuse not to love and forgive whatever's done.

Don't wait for an apology,
it may never come.
Protect yourself from offence
by forgiving everyone!

Look into your own heart
and be very sure
you are not harboring
a hurt behind that door.

Do you secretly or unknowingly blame Yahweh
for allowing evil things to come your way?

Then you have not died to self for the dead cannot feel.
They cannot be offended or make an appeal.

Press harder, reach higher,
climb to a new level.
Look down from the heavenlies
on the world, the flesh, the devil.

Yahweh made it simple (but it's not easy at all):
to qualify for His Kingdom,
just keep the Royal Law!
