

The Sacred Simplicity of the Sabbath

Pastor Vaughn, Chapter One

Honoring All Convictions

They Are Not Condemned – They Are Celebrated

We encourage every believer to honor their personal convictions, but caution them not to put on others their restrictions.

There are those who go beyond what would for Sabbath suffice.
They shut out every distraction, inspiring others by their sacrifice.

You can never live too holy or be too set apart, unless others who do not follow you are condemned within your heart.

We will all be judged one day for every action and word.
Let all things be done in love, honoring the truth we've heard.

Donna Jean DeBard

6/16/25