

The Sacred Simplicity of the Sabbath

Pastor Vaughn, Chapter Four

From Conviction to Condemnation

True conviction is beautiful, it is personal and life-giving as you follow the Holy Spirit in your day-to-day living.

But to allow it to become condemnation toward others will sow division.
The enemy would love to see you making that decision!

True conviction of a pure heart
fosters faith and inner peace,
a sense of joyous obedience
and brotherly love increase.

Don't let the zeal that guards your walk
become a sword to others.
Wounding them instead of loving your sisters and brothers!

Yahweh honors the broken and contrite heart-
not the loudest rule-keeper.
Those who insist on sowing discord must beware of the Divine Reaper!

Donna Jean DeBard

6/25/25