tryinginaustin Let me tell you about this young man. First home game and first time chaperoning, so I don't know what I am doing. His name is Khalil and he's a senior at LHS. He's not in the band. He's not responsible for cleaning. He stayed after the game and cleaned up entire sections of the stands. I stopped him and asked why..like does he get credit for this or did he sign up for it? He said "no one else was doing it, so I will." He then said "I claim to be the big man on campus so I better act like it." Well, folks, this young man is destined for greatness. It's who you are when no one is looking. He's a member of the basketball team at Leander High so I will for sure come watch him play. @leander_isd @leanderhighschool

Special Thank you to @kdliggins for going out of your way to clean the entire student section after the @LLionsFootball victory last night. Leander ISD is a special place because of students like you! @LISDActivities @LHS_principal20
