Special Picture Edition! CHAIN MINISTRY UPDATES

We have so many photos to show in this edition. Our last quarterly newsletter had only one, so we decided to make up for it this time and focus on the visual for a change. We hope these give you a better "picture" of our ministry.

Jean Klett got involved witnessing at the Southampton Fair as well. Fred kept running into a man named Jacob Cohen who is married to a gentile "Christian" woman. This amused them both. At least he was open to talk.

Three Amigos! Vitaly, Fred and Rick did evangelism together at a local fair in Southampton.

Fred shared the Good News with this young man who seemed like a hippie from the 60s. He was very open and took literature for his girlfriend as well.

Rick shares the gospel with "Charley." After Rick talked to him he prayed with Fred to receive salvation.

THANK YOU ALL FOR YOUR FAITHFUL SUPPORT!

☆☆☆ PLEASE NOTE OUR NEW ADDRESS! ☆☆☆

Saifadin, a former Muslim from Uzbekistan, received baptism. Over the years his whole family came to faith through the Rock of Israel church plant. He was the last holdout. He expressed very heartfelt repentance! He called his friends and shared his faith in Jesus. Pray for him. Just weeks after baptism he suffered a heart attack.

Another local event was the Philadelphia Children's Festival which was formerly known as the "Matryoshka Festival." It is for immigrants from the former Soviet Union. They changed the name because Matryoshka dolls are mostly associated with Russia, and the current conflict has caused tremendous tensions. On stage were Ukrainian Jewish kids dancing to "Hava Nagila."

Vitaly and Fred manned our booth at the festival and gave out Bibles and other materials in Russian and Ukrainian. This has always been a great venue to share the Gospel.

Fred & Jean Klett attended the Intl. Lausanne consultation on Jewish Evangelism in Poland. There were very helpful sessions and renewing of friendships with others in Jewish ministry.

A trip to Auschwitz and Birkenau concentration camps was included in the LCJE. It was a difficult thing to see, but it was important to experience.

Fred with old friend David Zadok from Israel. David does great work there publishing books in Russian and in Hebrew. Pray for his family's safety during the current situation.

Fred and Vitaly lunched with Steve Atkinson, USA director of CWI, Christian Witness to Israel, a sister ministry. We are exploring an official deeper connection. Please pray!

The Kletts spent two lovely evenings with Ukrainian Jewish friends Sasha and Lena. They are wonderful people and were happy to receive a Jewish-oriented Bible in Russian. We look forward to future get togethers.
