Reaching & Empowering the Deaf in Mexico & Beyond

Dear friends of Angels of Love, Inc. (AOL),

We hope this newsletter finds you well, and that in any circumstance you may be facing, you are reminded of the power of our resurrected Lord Jesus, who dwells within us, to carry you through the valleys of life. I am happy to announce that the transition of paperwork to the new board members was successful, and we are greatly thankful to Robert Ordway for overseeing the transition and for his 22 years of service with AOL, Inc. At our next meeting, we will be adding Erin Thompson, former staff member of RSM, to our board. We are excited to have her invaluable insight and perspective as we continue to expand our reach in blessing the Deaf community in every aspect of life. This all could not be possible without our faithful friends, family and supporters like you, who are the backbone of this ministry! Here are the latest ministry developments:

Ensenada Silent Ministry (ESM)

Besides being hands-on in fixing unexpected problems at ESM, Luke Everett has been instrumental in getting groups involved at the Deaf men's home in order to begin our remodeling process.

With your faithful support and alongside volunteer church groups, we were able to purchase a new stove, a new water reservoir, and new wood to fix the back porch and stairs up to the second floor.

Pastor Carlos, his sister, Vania Suarez, and two other Deaf men from the house are continuing their college studies to become teachers in order to work in the public school system, giving future Deaf students full access to the education they deserve and a better quality of life overall.

We are thankful for Luke Everett, who installed the new water tank at ESM, leading the way by example in doing the little things with love.

LOCAL DEAF NEWS

Two local Deaf organizations scored a big win recently in creating equal access to education for the Deaf in Ensenada. They convinced a public school to open up two of their classrooms and hire two Deaf teachers (Vania Suarez is one of the teachers) for Deaf students in the city (1st to 6th grade). Pray for these organizations as they are on the frontlines in fighting for Deaf rights in Ensenada!

PRAISE REPORT!

RHCCC (left) bought ESM a new stove and worked on the backyard & porch, which Big Valley Grace Community Church (right) continued working on. We are very grateful for their willingness to serve! To see our current needs for ESM visit our website at www.wbfglobal.org/ensenada-silent-ministry

Karen García

Word Became Flesh Global (WBFGlobal)

As director of Casa Maravillas (the Deaf women's housing ministry), Frances Vázquez is carrying the brunt of the day-to-day activities in the home, and is also volunteering to help our local Deaf association in driving Deaf children to school and back. She is now caring for and mentoring our first two Deaf women, Celeste and Karen, who are currently living at Casa Maravillas. Celeste (16) & Karen (17) are from towns south of Ensenada, and are both in school. Karen is in college studying to be a teacher, and practicing as a TA in a kindergarten, while Celeste is continuing her middle school studies. We want to train up strong, independent, Spirit-led, Deaf women by providing opportunities to continue their education, to have access to jobs with livable wages, and to grow spiritually within a Christian community at our local church.

Prayer Night

"Ministry is simply loving the person in front of you. It's about stopping for the one and being the very fragrance of Jesus to a lost and dying world."

-Heidi Baker

On March 1st, we started our first official prayer night for the Deaf community at our women's home. Our goal for these monthly gatherings is to be a place of refuge and renewal for the Deaf. It has since become a sweet time of fellowship, community, and storytelling.

Final thoughts...

One of the challenges of receiving more Deaf women at our housing ministry is the hike in expenses we experience. We are extremely thankful for our current givers, and we want to encourage those who are considering in partnering with us financially. Our goal and challenge is to raise an extra $500 dollars a month for Casa Maravillas. In order to do that, we are asking for 20 individuals to commit to $25 dollars a month to partner with us as we minister and provide for the Deaf women in our home to have a better future and to grow spiritually in all things.

We are excited and expectantly looking to the future in how God is going to use us (missionaries and partners) to have an impact on one of the most unreached people groups in the world. But first, let's learn to do the little things with love, and as we go, we pray His Kingdom come into our lives so we can carry His presence into everybody else's lives.
