

You can add these optional insurance riders for an additional premium:

Accidental Death Benefit (ADB):

The Accidental Death Benefit (ADB) rider can provide an additional death benefit up to $200,000 if you die from an accidental bodily injury. ADB is available for proposed insureds age 1 and above and may be added for your spouse and children too. Accidental Death Benefit expires at age 65. See rider for details.

Premium Waiver (PW):

With the Premium Waiver (PW) Rider, your Group Term life insurance coverage continues if you become totally disabled and can no longer pay premiums. Premiums are waived if the insured (employee, spouse or child) named in the policy becomes totally disabled. Premium Waiver expires at age 65. See rider for details.

This is a solicitation for insurance. The benefits described in this brochure are contained in group policy form GE65 and certificate GE65C, rider forms GEAD and GEPW. This brochure is not an insurance contract. The certificate explains the rights and obligations of both Liberty National and the insured. It is important to read your certificate carefully. Please see your Globe Life Liberty National Division agent for cost and complete details.

NOTE: Products described in this brochure can be purchased through a Section 125 cafeteria plan or a conventional payroll deduction program made available by your employer.

Available only through your worksite. Your employer is providing access to this voluntary group plan as a benefit to full-time employees.

Level death benefit coverage. Your coverage will not decrease so long as your certificate remains in force.

No increase in premiums. They are locked in at your present age. No increase as you get older and no increase if you leave employment.

Payroll deduction makes premium payment easy. Your premiums are deducted each payday, so you don't have to write a check.

You are covered when you sign the enrollment form, provided underwriting requirements are met.

You can take this coverage with you. If you leave employment, you may pay the premiums through bank draft. Your coverage and premiums remain the same, even if you change jobs or retire.
