Claudia Zapata

for US Congress
conclaudia.com

Claudia Zapata will fight for affordable housing, universal healthcare, a clean and safe environment, good public schools, and increasing the minimum wage. Claudia supports safe gun ownership, overturning Citizen's United, maternal and infant healthcare, veterans, and so much more. Claudia has four years of service at the Texas Health and Human Services Commission as well as legislative experience, and is an accomplished community organizer whose tireless efforts have helped countless fellow Texans.

Beto O'Rourke

for Texas Governor
betoorourke.com

Beto O'Rourke is a fourth-generation Texan who knows that together we can push past the small and divisive politics and get back to the big, bold vision that used to define Texas. He will strengthen services for veterans who have defended this country. He will fully fund public schools and support teachers, students, and parents. He knows all Texans deserve access to affordable, quality healthcare and that Texas is big enough for all of us—no matter who we are or who we love. Texas should be THE leader in building a safe, legal, orderly immigration system that meets the needs of our state and country.

Mike Collier

for Lt. Governor
collierfortexas.com

Mike Collier is a former energy company CFO who will work to lower property taxes, improve public schools, protect our rights, and fix the damn grid. He will fight to ensure that women and their doctors—not politicians—make decisions about their own healthcare. Mike will work to ensure the state no longer neglects rural schools, hospitals, and broadband. He will champion reforming our criminal justice system and legalize marijuana so that more Texans can work rather than spend years in prison for minor, non-violent offenses. He will push for investing to reduce crime.

Rochelle Garza

for Texas Attorney General rochellegarzafortexas.com

Rochelle Garza will be a voice for hard-working Texans and protect their interests and our civil rights in court. In her legal career she has focused on advocating for everyday people and as attorney general, she will be the public defender for all Texans and will hold those in power accountable. As an immigration attorney and border native, she knows the complexities of our immigration system. She believes healthcare is a human right. She supports legalizing recreational cannabis and ending the prejudicial prosecution of Black and Brown Texans on misdemeanor criminal possession charges.

Janet Dudding

for Texas Comptroller of Public Records janetdudding4texas.com

Janet Dudding would be the first certified public accountant as Texas comptroller. While at the Office of the State Auditor, she investigated allegations that governmental officials had betrayed the public trust. She's devoted her career to holding governments accountable to the people, not special interests. The comptroller is charged with reducing greenhouse gases such as methane. Doing nothing about methane is costing us billions of dollars with each climate emergency disaster. Working with other agencies, Janet will seek to mandate cutting emissions on our vast state-owned lands.

Jay Kleburg

for Texas Land Commissioner jay4tx.com

Jay Kleburg knows climate change is real, and there's no time for inaction. A sixth-generation Texan raised in an agricultural community, he has a passion for environmental advocacy that has led him to a career in conservation. As former Associate Director of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Foundation, his team led the largest land acquisition for conservation purposes in Texas history. As he has done his entire life, Jay will manage our public lands to protect and preserve this beautiful state.

Susan Hays

for Texas Agriculture Commissioner hays4ag.com

Susan Hays is running for agriculture commissioner because corruption is bad for business. She supports rural healthcare and economic development. She will promote economically and environmentally sustainable agriculture. As a cannabis law expert, she knows Texas should promote public health and safety while creating economic opportunities. Regulations and taxation should accomplish a clear goal without economically burdening the industry – or patients. Farming is hard. Ethics should be easy.

Luke Warford

for Texas Railroad Commissioner lukewarford.com

Luke Warford knows The Texas Railroad Commission (RRC), which oversees the Texas oil and gas industry, is a critical office. Winter Storm Uri and mismanagement by RRC caused a preventable grid failure and 700 deaths. Instead of protecting Texans, the RRC was focused on making billions for their friends and increasing our electricity costs by 39%. Luke will work to fix the grid, reduce emissions, and increase transparency while keeping energy jobs as the backbone of the Texas economy. The Texas Railroad Commission must embrace technology, innovation, and science.

Erin A. Nowell

for Fifth District Court of Appeals, Place 5 justicenowell.com

Erin A. Nowell has earned a strong reputation for being prepared, knowing each case, and maintaining clear objectivity. Justice Nowell serves on the Fifth District Court of Appeals, Place 5. Fairness is her core value in her work. Justice Nowell knows that the faith we have in the justice system is directly related to transparency, fairness, and the ability of judges and justices to make rulings that follow the law, independent of any outside influences.

Amanda Reichek

for Texas Supreme Court Justice
justicereichkek.com

Amanda Reichek was first elected to the Fifth District Court of Appeals in 2018, where she has authored hundreds of well-reasoned opinions, while serving on the panel of hundreds more. She has a reputation for being well-prepared and humble. Justice Reichek is Board Certified in Labor and Employment Law and, before she joined the court, she spent much of her legal career advocating for the rights of employees and labor unions, including the Houston Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO, and Texas Rural Legal Aid.

Julia Maldonado

for Texas Supreme Court Justice
maldonadofortexas.com

Julia Maldonado has been licensed to practice law for over twenty years and practiced for eighteen years before first being elected judge in 2016. As an attorney, Judge Maldonado had the privilege to appeal several cases to the Texas Court of Appeals and a case to the Texas Supreme Court. Judge Maldonado has been a member of the State Bar of Texas since 1998 and is Board Certified in Family Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. She brings her diversity, integrity, transparency, legal and judicial experience.

Dana Huffman

for Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 5
judgehuffman.com

Dana Huffman has twenty-five years of legal and judicial experience and has presided over hundreds of bench and jury trials. She is a respected attorney and municipal judge. She currently serves as a municipal judge and magistrate for five cities, and as a prosecutor for three cities. Judge Huffman has served as a faculty member for the Texas Municipal Court Education Center. She is actively involved in community service including work for Take Me Home Pet Rescue Board, the Richardson Humane Society, and Respect-A-Bull.

Robert Johnson

for Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 6

Robert Johnson received his law degree from Thurgood Marshall School of Law in 2001. After law school, he opened up his own practice. Prior to becoming a judge, he did criminal defense work for thirteen years. Judge Johnson makes his rulings based upon the law and remains fair and impartial at all times.

Rosa Lopez Theofanis

for Texas Third Court of Appeals, Place 4 rosaforjustice.com

Rosa Lopez Theofanis is a career public servant. Rosa has served the people of Travis County for close to fifteen years, as an Assistant District and County Attorney. An experienced litigator, Rosa has successfully prosecuted more than twenty jury trials and dozens of appeals, civil and criminal.

Robert Walsh

for Texas Senate, District 25
walshford25.com

Robert Walsh, an entrepreneur raised in Central Texas, has the skills to make the State actually work for the people. He believes educators should be paid fairly, polluters shouldn't be allowed to destroy our waterways, Texas must expand Medicaid, essential workers and rural hospitals are vital, and Texas needs a higher minimum wage and more work-from-home jobs.

Pam Baggett

for Texas House, District 19
pambaggettfortexas.com

Pam Baggett believes that embracing the Golden Rule can help remove divisiveness from politics. She'll work to protect clean air and water, return local control, restore reproductive rights, and reform criminal justice with access to mental health services. She worked in public affairs for state government, hospitals, professional associations, and FEMA. Pam serves on local and national boards and is a member of the National Alliance on Mental Health.

Rebecca Bell-Metereau

for State Board of Education, District 5 voterebecca.com

Rebecca Bell-Metereau is an award-winning educator who strongly supports public schools and opposes using public funds to pay for private-school vouchers. She is dedicated to providing Texas schoolchildren with a great education. She is committed to reducing our over-reliance on high-stakes testing and ensuring that our $46 billion Permanent School Fund is only used to improve public education in Texas.
