It started from a thought...

...and the thought
became a book!

How did PUN-TASTIC WAYS FOR BRIGHTER DAYS begin?

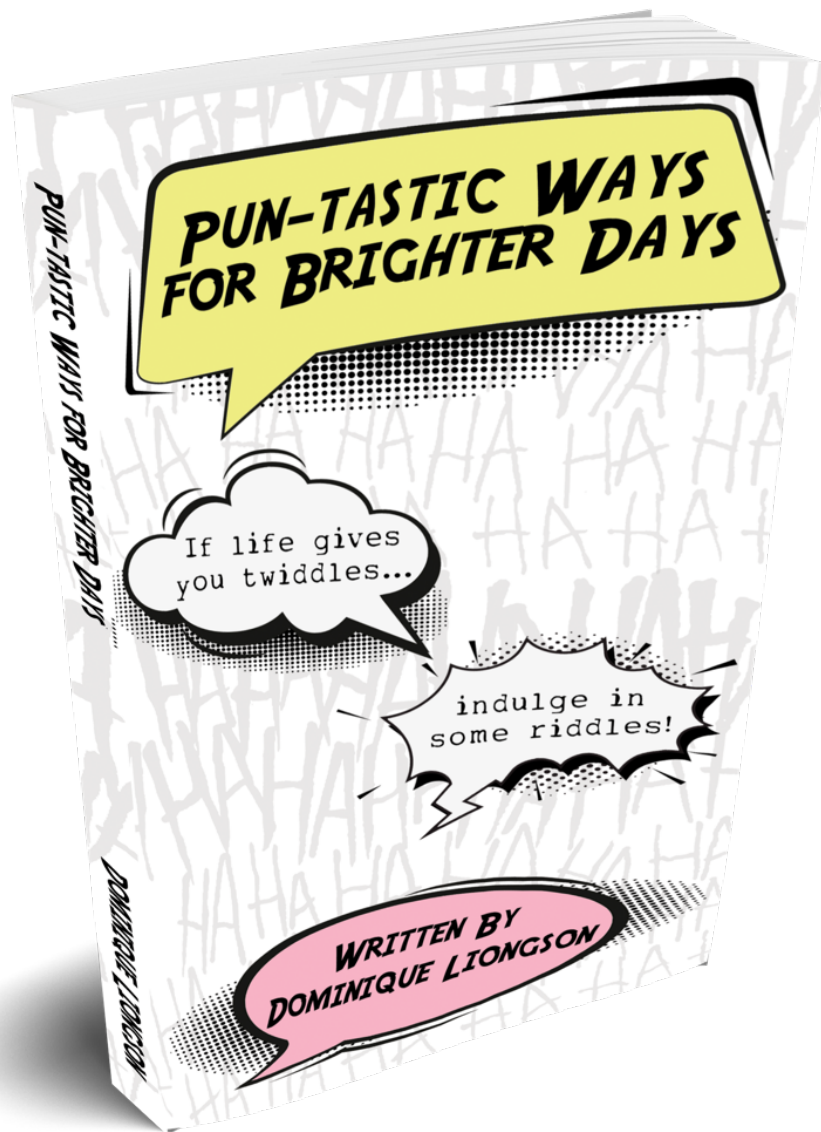

Dominique Liongson loves to hear and laugh at a good joke. Over the years she had several attempts to retell jokes to her mates, with the goal of enjoying the laughter with them, and to feel great together.

No success. Within those attempts, Dominique got lost with the sequence of the jokes, which meant zero laughter, and it felt far from great. So, she tried reading and listening to jokes, while picking up their patterns. Somehow, joke reading and joke listening worked to make joke retelling easier; they helped yield buckets and buckets of laughter.

Then Dominique accepted a challenge to write her own jokes. After years of borrowing jokes from other sources, she felt it was time to work from her own creative mind instead. By 2017, she grabbed a pen, and wrote one riddle pun a day for a year. Yes, she did this for 365 days.

With the cooperation of Dominique and the publishing team, PUN-TASTIC WAYS FOR BRIGHTER DAYS is her bundle-of-joy book that came to life. Now ready for you to read and decide — whether to roll your eyes, or to crack up laughing.

That was how PUN-TASTIC WAYS FOR BRIGHTER DAYS began.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Dominique Liongson is an artist in the field of following recipes of artistic skills and from there, creating her own recipes.

From either following the rules to the letter, or breaking some so she can create her own style, Dominique's art involves projects with clever use of three-dimensional (3D) crafts, 2D visuals, and 1D written words.

As for her intellectual side, Dominique believes IQ level and educational attainment do not matter. She believes that how the intelligence is used, is far more important than its rating or numerical value.

In the case of PUN-TASTIC WAYS FOR BRIGHTER DAYS, Dominique used her witty brain to complete this book project with clean funny riddles. She added the following elements to fill up the reader's light and darkness: 1) love to a hungry heart; 2) joy to a suicidal soul; and 3) peace to a mace-sprayed mind.

TESTIMONIALS

Dominique's book reminds of me jokes I would crack to my younger sister when we were kids. The lines evoke child-like wit, a form of entertainment that is lost — and very much welcome — to the busy and anxious adult mind. I foresee this book as a useful read while bonding with children.

(L. Lachica - Taguig, Philippines)

<>Funny<> Laughed their heads off.

(R. Owen - QLD, Australia)

It was a HAPPY BOOK 😊 and you will observe that the book is... made by a very intelligent Ms Dominique Liongson. For me it's a very nice book that will make people combat stress and frustrations, because when you read this book you feel the happiness inside of you; so it will make you focus back to the work/chores you need to accomplish... TESTIMONIALS

The book is full of wit. Every pun is made intelligently. (Dominique's) good at this. I learned a lot of words that can be seen differently. Such an intelligent mind.

(C. G. Lucero - Laguna, Philippines)

The author has a wonderful mind. She lives, eats, sleeps and breathes word association and I think this is admirable and she is very clever. I confess though, I find few of her puns amusing. To me, an explanation after each pun should not be required. Each pun should stand alone as an amusing wordplay or double entendre. But don't take my word for it - read it for yourself. Contact the author to find where it may be purchased. This book is selling very well and I applaud Dominique for writing it.

(R. V. Dixon - QLD, Australia)

Pun-tastic Ways For (Brighter) Days... Boredom reliever, positivity, and a healthy way to enjoy minute happiness!

(I. B. Nuñez - Manila, Philippines)

It's a fresh approach on that kind of subject.

(B. Samonte - Quezon City, Philippines)

TESTIMONIALS

A brilliant twist on words. Left a grin from ear to ear.

(B. D. Scott - QLD, Australia)

Dominique's writing is funny and witty— and pretty much sounds the way she speaks when she writes. That's why she is such a joy to be with, always spreading positive thoughts and laughter.

Dear Reader, enjoy this book as much as I do!

(M. S. Reyes - Makati, Philippines)

Hey! It's really cool that (Dominique) made (this) book. Not sure if I have but if not, congratulations! It's not an easy feat and (she made the book) wonderfully. I'm excited to give (the book) to the boys!

(P. Martelino - Manila, Philippines)

My kids had a good laugh while reading (this) book. My 10 year-old said, "Mom, your classmate (Dominique) is a genius!" They love puns very much.

This book of puns clicked very well with my kids. It was fun watching them taking turns to read the questions and laughing at all the pun-ny answers. Thanks and congratulations... on this book, most of all for sending it to far far away— (Santa Rosa) 😂 Hope this reaches more readers. 🙌❤️ Looking forward (for) the next ones
