

ABOUT

ANNETTE BATTLE

Annette Battle was born and raised in Greensboro, NC. She is the daughter of the late James T. and Juanita King. She is happily married to Alvin Battle and the proud mother of six beautiful children and five grandchildren. Annette is a graduate of James B. Dudley High School. She holds a bachelor's degree in biology from UNC Chapel Hill and Medical Technology Certification from Duke University Medical Center. She attended the MBA program at Meredith College and holds a Master of Science degree in Information Systems from Strayer University. She also has an Associate and Bachelors' degree in Christian ministry from the Sure Foundation.

Reverend Battle was baptized at the age of 12 at Shiloh Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Dr. Otis L. Hairston. In 2000, she accepted her call to ministry and was licensed and ordained by Bishop George Brooks, Full Gospel Church at Upper Room Baptist Church in High Point, NC. Reverend Battle has led many community-wide initiatives in High Point, NC. She has served in many ministry roles to include; Pastor, Associate Minister, Christian Education leader, Minister of Music and Outreach ministry. Reverend Battle is currently employed by Atrium Health, Wake Forest Baptist as an Information Technology Director. Reverend Battle has a passion for music ministry and Christian education. Her favorite scripture is Psalm 121. She proclaims a consistent message and motto of Sowing Seeds Every Day, Every Way, Daily Serving the Lord. (S.E.E.D.S)

Psalm 121

I will lift up mine
eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh
my help.
My help cometh
from the Lord,
which made
heaven and earth.