Judge: Ryan Roy

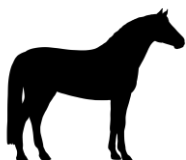

Ryan Roy has decades of experience competing and coaching in hunter, jumper and equitation rings in North America, and is a Senior Equestrian Canada judge (and a professional polo player!). She and her father, Randy Roy, an iconic hunter judge himself, operate Hunters Glen Farm in Schomberg where they specialize in training, showing and selling high-quality hunters and jumpers. Source: horsesport.com

Governor General's Cup

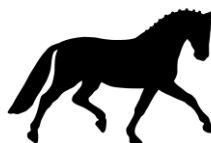

Lord Byng, 12th Governor General of Canada from 1921 to 1926 established the Governor General's Cup at the RAWF in 1922, it's inaugural year. Lord Byng was well known to Canadians before his appointment as Governor General. In 1916, during the First World War, he took command of the Canadian Army Corps on the western front. Horses are judged 50% conformation and 50% movement.

Lieutenant Governor's Cup

The RAWF introduced this Cup in 1953 with the approval of then Lieutenant Governor the Hon. Louis Orville Breithaupt. Originally, an in-hand class for 3-year-olds for "other than thoroughbreds", it changed to an under saddle class. Horses are judged 60% on movement and way of going and 40% conformation.

Pony Cups Program

The Pony Cups include a line class and under saddle class.

The criteria is similar to the horse Cup classes:

- Must be foaled and registered in Canada
- Accepted breeds include (but aren't limited to) Canadian Sport Pony, Welsh, half-Welsh, CONN, British Riding Pony, German Riding Pony
- Should be capable of excelling as a hunter, jumper, eventer or dressage mount
- The line class will be judged 50 per cent on movement and 50 per cent on conformation/type, while the under-saddle ponies will be judged with 60 per cent of the score based on performance (athleticism, impulsion, balance and rideability) and 40 per cent for conformation/type.

VOLUNTEER SHOUT OUT

As a non-profit association, the CSHA depends on the dedication and hard work of our volunteers. These volunteers not only sit on the board, but assist in securing sponsorships, act as ring stewards and judge's assistant at the Breeder's Championship and Cup Qualifiers, and photographers when needed.

Without the effort and commitment by our volunteers, the CSHA wouldn't be able to continue. They're the driving force behind our association's success. And we are truly grateful for their support. A special thanks to Joanna Fast & Ted Levison for their many years of support and volunteering.

THANK YOU to our sponsors and exhibitors!
