Well, it has been widely publicized by now that I will be retiring as Director of the Yarnell Regional Community Center by June 1st of this year. I can't believe that it was 4 years ago that Scott Shepherd asked me how I would feel about taking the helm at this great organization. I remember that there was no hesitation then and as I prepare to leave I have mixed feelings, but I was reminded over and over, this year especially, that life is short.

So how do we pass the torch in a way that preserves the great things we have achieved together in the last 4 years? We make sure we have the right person leading the way and have the same great people supporting the efforts that we have had for the last 4 years.

Amid the discussions surrounding the search for a new director we have settled on a few "must haves." Some background in non-profit management so there is an understanding of the importance of on-going fundraising, high energy and detail oriented to juggle all the things that need attention immediately and simultaneously. Finally, and most importantly, an innate and steadfast commitment to the welfare of other people. Every relationship is important.

Do you have all those qualities and more? Do you know someone else who might? Stop by and talk to me or send them by. It just might be the best and most fulfilling job you, or they, will have. I know it was for me

We enjoyed good camaraderie, food and information at our Annual Meeting in February. Congratulations to our newly elected board members. Serving a two-year term are Joyce Dennison (Vice President), Leah Tidey (Secretary), Frances Lechner (Treasurer), and Steve Spence (Member at Large). Minutes from our meeting are posted on our website or available at the Center.

The YRCC board meets the 2nd Tuesday of each month. Please join us at our next meeting on March 13 at the YRCC. Our new meeting time is from 2:30-4pm. We will hold some of our meetings in our service areas and intend to meet at North Ranch in April, and Walnut Grove in May.
