

KALENDR

Kalendr has established himself at the forefront of an ever-increasing market of DJs, producers, and artists. Performing over 150 shows a year, he has secured gigs across the country and residencies at some of the nations most highly-respected venues. Passionate about performing you can find Kalendr playing grooves in the underground scene, headlining open format shows for Live Nation and setting the tone at private events. He also has curated playlists for restaurants, programmed music and produced events for high-profile corporate entities like Adidas, Bellagio, Ford, PRG and Skynet.

Most recently Kalendr collaborated with country singer Laura Bryna on "Sweet Revenge" for their first Billboard Top 10 Dance Chart hit. He also remixed the Martin Garrix ft. Bonn "Home" track , which is on an upcoming release by RCA.

Kalendr continues to master his craft, delivering the best client/fan experience across multiple genres and platforms. His ultra-versatile style and ability to set the mood in any room/event has made him a desired choice for performing in front of any size crowd, venue or market. Kalendr extends his professional experience through various channels including remixes, ghost production, TV placement and music curation. His impressive catalogue of releases for some of the industry's most defining artists and recording labels that has earned him a high degree of credibility among his peers and audiences.
