Kalendr is a visionary creative, seamlessly blending his expertise as a DJ, producer, voiceover artist, videographer, and creative director to craft immersive experiences. As Creative Director for G Brand USA, he shapes the brand's identity through dynamic content, bridging music, fashion, and culture. His voiceover work spans commercials, promos, narration, and radio imaging, delivering compelling and authentic storytelling.

From underground clubs and festivals to high-profile private and corporate events, Kalendr has performed nationwide, securing residencies and curating sound for brand activations, Fortune 500 companies, and major productions. As a Billboard Reporter and Top 10 Artist, his music production and remixes have gained industry recognition, impacting radio, club dance floors, and TV placements. He has delivered high-energy DJ performances and produced live events for global brands like Adidas, CES, Ford, NADA, Rolex, and SEMA, reinforcing his influence in the music and event industries.

Kalendr's impact extends into videography and content creation, where he blends music, visuals, and storytelling into high-energy brand campaigns and cinematic event recaps. Whether producing, directing, or voicing a project, he brings a refined vision that transforms ideas into reality.

Fueled by a passion for music, storytelling, and production, Kalendr continues to push creative boundaries, delivering work that resonates and lasts.
