Dear Irene,

In sorting papers I found the two enclosed items, ^{Incl. Valentine} Since you have grandchildren, I thought you were the one to have them — or toss them!

Also this summer I had a letter and later a phone call from a Michael Kellhofer from San Diego, California. He was interested in getting genealogical information. I found that his great-grandmother was Anna Bier, who had married Jacob Kellhofer in 1867, and moved to Washington Court House. I am sending him some of the material (you gave me) about the Bier family. I noted that those records don't have the children of the Bier sisters complete. I am
