All others					2		2	4	2	6	16
Totals:	55	65	97	42	95	80	53	71	97	57	712

NOTE: The above statistics were assembled only from the "Compiled Service Records" which positively identified the county where the soldier enlisted.

SOME STATISTICS ON THE 16TH.*

	Totals
Number of names on rolls for the entire war-----	1275
Highest known number of men in the field at any time-----	720
Confirmed as killed or died during the entire war-----	66
Listed as captured or prisoners of war-----	194
Listed as injured, wounded or sick-----	43
Listed as deserted during the entire war-----	92

*These totals were tabulated from "Compiled Service Records," and all the totals except number of names are no doubt lower than actual.

Taken from Gen. Jenkins' letter to James Seddon, stating that the 16th. then had an average of 72 men to the company. The regiment consisted of 10 companies. This was in February of 1863.
