

Introducing Worldview Benefit Advisors: A Global Employee Benefits Consulting Firm Catering to Growing Multinational Businesses

Specialized support for companies navigating the complex global benefits landscape without a large global footprint.

[Houston, TX, November 9, 2023] -- Worldview Benefit Advisors, Inc., a boutique consultancy firm, has officially launched its operations, promising specialized guidance, hands-on support, and unparalleled expertise for growing businesses with a new or limited global footprint.

Breia Foston, the Founder and CEO of Worldview Benefit Advisors, expressed her enthusiasm for the firm's launch, saying, "I am proud to introduce Worldview Benefit Advisors, a consultancy firm dedicated to empowering growing multinational businesses to compete on a global stage by providing exceptional global insight, guidance, and confidence. Worldview Benefit Advisors is dedicated to assisting clients and partnering with brokers who are seeking a trusted advisor. I look forward to providing a launching pad to companies ready to expand globally and seeking consultative support."

Key services and benefits offered by Worldview Benefit Advisors include:

- Boutique Service: Worldview Benefit Advisors takes a hands-on approach to create tailored employee benefits packages that align with each client's unique corporate culture, budget, and global population.
- Specialized Global Expertise: Worldview Benefit Advisors carries in-depth knowledge of international benefits regulations and best practices. We have extensive experience advising on clients' international assignee workforces including U.S. expatriates, third country nationals, local nationals, and business travelers.
- Strategic Support: We act as an extension of broker partners and clients collaborating to develop and refine a global strategy for benefits and employee programs. Our strategic approach will provide governance structure and procedures to align financial costs, benefit design, vendor management and plan marketing with organizational objectives.

Worldview Benefit Advisors is especially eager to partner with brokers whose U.S. domestic clients have globally mobile talent in need of a global advisor to provide assurance and ensure proper duty of care for their employee groups worldwide. The firm is a resource for the U.S. brokerage community and is ready to offer value-added services in collaboration with producers and agents.
