

300 Word Stories

Write your own 300-word stories using these prompts.
Remember the story must be exactly 300 words and have a beginning, middle, and ending. Don't forget to illustrate your story!

- Write a story about a skunk that smells like roses.
- Write a story about a rich man who wants to lose his money.
- Write a story about a boy who can read people's minds.
- Write a story about a conversation between the moon and stars.
- Write a story about a duck who's afraid of the water.
- Write a story about a princess who has trouble sleeping.
- Write a story about an ape hired to conduct a symphony.
- Write a story about a family that lives on the planet Saturn.
- Write a story about a girl who has an electric eel for a pet.
- Write a story about an ostrich who wants to take ballet lessons.
- Write a story about a rose in a garden that blooms black and yellow polka dots.
- Write a story about a pickle that escapes from a pickle jar.
- Write a story about a girl who floats every time she sneezes.
- Write a story about a school for all kinds of birds.
- Write a story about a boy whose freckles can talk to him.