In June 2025, the detective squad handled a range of cases with solid results. They investigated a string of vehicle thefts and crashes, which led to the discovery of two false reports.

Detective Rodriguez was selected to serve as a task force officer with Homeland Security, a move that benefits both him and the department by giving him new experience and strengthening our ties with federal partners.

At end the month, Sergeant Rodriguez and Detective Campbell put together some team-building activities for detectives and patrol staff to boost morale and keep the working relationships strong.
