Artist Release & Permission To Play Music

To Show & Disclose Book Information

On this date: _____, I _____ the representative or individual(s) of _____ has given permission to Prairie Land Radio Network to play our music on The Mid West Plainsman Podcast & Internet Radio Broadcasts Conducted By Earl Williams. The Above client agrees to provide the music they designate to be played on the air along with a written release before music is added to the rotation.

This written release form allows the use of the artist's music, in the form of MP3 Tracks Or Videos to be played either while being interviewed by the radio host or for a designated period of time on the website player for the purpose of promoting the band or artist and their music.

This same written release also applies to any books discussed and or shown during the time of the interview. All Authors Are To Mail A Copy Of Their Book To Me Prior To The Interview For Discussion So I Can Get Familiar With What Is In The Book.

Prairie Land Radio Network will only play the music in which the artist has given permission to play on the air with this signed release. Any new individual releases or CD's that are sent to Prairie Land Radio Network following the signing of this release form can and will be included unless otherwise stated.

It is the artist's responsibility to provide either CD's or digital formats of the specific tracks to be played on-air to have the best quality sound possible.

This release and permission statement is good for 2 years and will remain active following the date signed unless otherwise notified via email to cancel this release form.

At any time after the contract is signed and the artist, musician, band or author wishes to cancel this contract before the date specified, the client is to notify Earl at Prairie Land Radio Network at least 2 weeks prior to the end of the two year period via email. Other conditions may be discussed if the cancellation is for other uncontrollable circumstances.

We appreciate having your business and are happy to provide you with the best service possible!
