355 Orchard Drive, Mount Jackson, Virginia 22842

Hi there!
I'm Olivia!
And that's Moe!

Welcome to Roadhaven!

I come from a long line of hosts; believers in hospitality, shared experiences, and the warmth of an open door. For eight years, I ran Olivia Rose Event Design, helping others bring their gatherings and visions to life. I found that it was time to invest my creativity into my own community and for the people that feed my soul. I currently serve as the Town Manager of Mount Jackson - this little quaint town you find yourself visiting! It brings me such joy to advocate for improved quality of life for those in this beautiful southern Shenandoah County town. If you'd like to chat all things local government - let me know! I'm full of recommendations!

Fast-forward to 2025, Roadhaven1830 becomes a reality - and home to my family. Your home should always be a haven and growing up, ours was 'ROAD' haven - representing the initials of my core people. 1830, of course, represents the age of the property. Our hope is that you feel like you've stepped out into the English countryside (with a few modern touches!).

While we're home to two guest cottages, and four suites, it is our backyard haven that offers the true experience. Within its bounds, we hope you'll find connection and conversation around the firepit, relaxation and reflection in the gardens, and an opportunity to connect with Mother Nature at every turn. We are so happy you are here

OUR HISTORY

THE ROOTS OF ROADHAVEN

Roadhaven1830 was originally known as the ‘Casper Bowman Home Farm’ and while we now sit atop 7 acres, the property was once several hundred acres and home to the largest dairy farm in the area. Prior to 1853, Levi Rinker would use a fulling mill dam to create felt, ruins of which still exist on site. By 1859, he had deeded the property to George Fitzmoyer who, in turn, willed it to his brother William. This led to William’s daughter, Rebecca Fitzmoyer Bowman, buying out her siblings to purchase the home (we love a little girl power). Upon her death in 1923, the estate was passed to Casper Bowman, her son, and longest proprietor, who lived here until his death in 1953.

In 1970, the home was purchased by Martin Flinn Tilley, a creative from California, who began its restoration. After Mr. Tilley, came the “Widow’s Kip”, Rosemary Kip, who had worked for the Sulgrave Club, a private women’s only club on D.C.’s Embassy Row (sensing the girl power theme, again!). In 1986, she converted the home into a Bed & Breakfast, complete with 10 modern bathrooms. The previous ‘hen house’ and ‘wash house’ were converted into the guest cottages we know and love today.

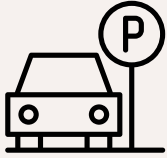

In 1991, Bob & Betty Luse saw the property listed in the New York Times. They kept the name ‘Widow Kip’s’ and remained for the next 29 years, calling Mount Jackson home. After losing Betty, Bob was ready to sell and so, in 2020, he passed the property to the Nossal family and it was dubbed the Family Farmhouse Inn. Until 2025, when it went through yet another (and ideally final) rebranding to become Roadhaven1830.

Today, Roadhaven1830 is owned by Olivia R. Hilton, who purchased the property for her family to cherish for years to come. Her parents, Rebeccah and David Hilton, will live in the expanded Dudley Suite and help her navigate event hosting, Victorian renovations, and boutique lodging!

GUEST REVIEWS

Beautiful, comfortable & affordable. It was a cold evening, the room had plenty of blankets, the beds were comfortable. Personal touches included a sound machine, allergy resistant pillows, eco-friendly bath products. The farmhouse grounds are beautiful, with a ground checkers game, fire pit, well lit. I would absolutely return! - Deborah

We were visiting the Shenandoah Valley and decided to stay in a BnB instead of a chain hotel and are very happy that we did. A very comfortable and clean room, thoughtfully accommodated. Newly renovated bathroom. The host left notes about the local, small town community. Will absolutely stay here again! - Steve
