REPORT OF THE VOLUNTEERING SERVICE TO THE FLOOD VICTIMS BY LINCOLN UNIVERSITY COLLEGE STUDENTS

Organized By: Lincoln University
College, Malaysia

2022

EVENT REPORT

A community program named Volunteering Service (Flood Pandemic) was organized by Majlis Bandaraya Petaling Jaya (MBPJ) and MPP ZON 22 on December 26, 2021 at Pangsapuri Perdana, Seksyen 13, Shah Alam, Selangor, Malaysia to assist the people affected by the flood in Selangor.

The community program was attended by 21 students from Lincoln University College, Malaysia as the representative from the College.

The community program-based event was focused on areas affected by flood at Pangsapuri Perdana, Seksyen 13, Shah Alam. The program put emphasis on the importance to raise awareness on environmental quality. It also helps future generations to learn the meaning of team work.

Apart from helping the victims to clean their homes, some food packs were also distributed to them to relieve them of the psychological trauma.
