PO Box 291
Kalkaska, MI 49646

Kalkaska WINTERFEST will be held February 15-16, 2020 at the Kalkaska Community Center on the Kalkaska County Fairgrounds. We are accepting applications for craft vendors (hand crafted items only, no animals) during our weekend of festivities. This two day craft show requires a donation of $40 for an 8 x 10 space. Please make checks payable to Kalkaska Winterfest. We must have your response by February 12.

Set up will start on Friday evening, February 14 from 5:00-6:30 pm or Saturday beginning at 7:00 am. Electricity is available in most spaces. Please provide your own tables, chairs, extension cords and other equipment you may require. Food will be available at the concessions.

By signing the enclosed form you are releasing the Kalkaska WINTERFEST of any liability concerning your booth. If you are a food vendor, you must supply a copy of your insurance liability policy. The Kalkaska Winterfest reserves the right to accept or reject entries for any reason. (No animals allowed without prior written consent from the Winterfest board.)

Mail the application and the $40 donation check or money order to:
