

Nordic Classroom

The Nordic lens to see the world

Nordic Classroom program was born during the summer 2020. It is developed by a Hong Kong Startup InNordics with a team of Nordic enthusiasts and experienced Finnish teacher. As the Nordic world plays a significant global leadership role in education, innovation and technology, we design a brand-new program providing the young generation an opportunity to explore the plenty of Nordic secrets, understand and connect the Nordic culture and values with their own.

Program Highlights

- Designed with an experienced Finnish teacher
- Provide experience-based, phenomenon-based and cross cultural learning activities to understand the innovative and positive Nordic culture & values
- Blended with fun Nordic educational and technological (AR) game to enhance students' cross-cultural intelligence
- Incorporates Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) as blueprint to promote sustainable living & social responsibility

About InNordics

Founded in 2018 by Alan Ng who used to pursue his tertiary business degree in Finland, InNordics is a collaborative platform to realize cross-cultural intelligence & cross-sector cooperation between the Nordics and Asia. We connect the competitive and collaborative cultures as a novel way to generate innovative chemistry. We shed light on Nordic Innovation, Technology, Entrepreneurship, Design, and Education via launching innovative Nordic educational programs, providing bespoke themed delegations, introducing education-related products and services to the local students, businesses and institutions. We believe this is a perfect way to experience the new facet of the Nordic world.
