The 61st Annual Appalachian Arts & Crafts Fair continues a cherished Beckley tradition, and this year promises to be the largest fair in more than 20 years! The Beckley Art Group is proud to participate and celebrate this outstanding community event.

Artists are invited to submit works inspired by the theme Appalachia. Accepted media include painting, drawing, mixed media, printmaking, fiber arts, and sculpture.

This year's exhibition will be judged by renowned artist Seay Earehart. A Beckley native now living in Georgia, Seay has built an impressive career as a scenic designer and scenic artist for theater and television productions. Most recently, he served as a set designer for the acclaimed TV series Stranger Things.

Don't miss this exciting opportunity to showcase your work and be part of one of Southern West Virginia's most celebrated artistic traditions.
