General Ground Rules

1. Current Coggins papers required on all horses brought onto the fairgrounds. If you wish to board horses off grounds at the Texas Tech Equestrian Center coggins will be required to rent a stall there as well.
2. Only identified workers, coaches, event directors and officials will be allowed in the arena. If you are in the arena or on the fences you must be in dress code.
3. Only contestants with a qualified ride/run will compete in the short-round regardless of amount of entries.
4. No trailer parking in the spectator parking.
5. There will be 80 stalls that are free to contestants on a first come first serve basis. Do not save stalls overnight, we will have someone monitoring this. You will check in with someone upon arrival. You can park in the designated lot and tie up or build pens.
6. Those who want to stall off grounds can go to the Texas Tech Equestrian Center 5712 County Road 1500 Lubbock TX 79407 to rent stalls. That phone number is 806-792-4682.
7. For morning slacks there will be hospitality for contestants, family and coaches first come first serve.
8. There will be saddles and buckles given to the champion of each event. The women's all-around and men's all around champions will receive a trailer and custom made Resistol hat certificates. Must be present to get awards and take photos.

Timed Events
