A Letter from the Pastor

By Pastor Jay Anderson

What is a disciple? Well, most simply a disciple is a follower. So then, if we expand the question to ask, what is a disciple of Jesus Christ then logic would suggest that a disciple of Jesus Christ is a follower of Jesus Christ. But what, then, do we mean or how do we understand the nature of being a disciple of Jesus Christ? Well, the Wesleyan understanding of a disciple according to The General Rules of Discipleship in our United Methodist Book of Discipline states that, “A disciple is a witness to Jesus Christ in the world who follows His teachings through acts of compassion, justice, worship, and devotion under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.” The late Rev. Junius Dotson, who at the time of his death last year was the head of the UMC General Board of Discipleship, offered this simpler definition: “A disciple is one who knows Christ, is growing in Christ, serving Christ, and sharing Christ.”

The mission of the United Methodist Church is “To make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.” The “making of disciples” and the “transforming of the world” are two sides of the same coin; it is both the purpose behind being a disciple, as well as the result of people becoming disciples. So I assume, understanding the inherent pitfalls in assuming, that people who attend church are people who both find themselves and desire to be, somewhere on the path of getting to know Christ, growing in Christ, serving Christ, and sharing Christ. Otherwise, honestly, why would we be here?

Understanding that discipleship is a journey, a process, or as Jesus called it, “a Way,” we all need ongoing opportunities to be reminded about various aspects of what it means and what it looks like to be a disciple, and to find ways of moving further along that way. There are easily understood and measurable milestones to progressing on the way to becoming a better disciple, such as time spent reading or studying scripture, time spent in prayer, worshiping or serving in some way. But there are also some aspects of discipleship that are less about measuring and more about experience and growth, particularly spiritual growth.

At the same time, discipleship is not a “one and done” kind of learning either. We don’t learn everything we need to know about following Jesus in Sunday School, Confirmation, or any adult book study. We learn something new every time we read or study a passage of scripture, even if it’s one we’re very familiar with. No two prayers are understood or experienced in the same way, even if it’s a universal or communal prayer like the Lord’s Prayer. No two worship experiences or service opportunities are the same, nor do they result in the same outcomes in our or someone else’s lives. That’s why we keep going back, why we keep studying, keep worshiping, keep serving, keep giving, and keep bearing witness to our faith with our lives in various ways.

In October and November we will be going back to the basics of discipleship for some refreshers on the basics of discipleship. We’ll explore the importance of worship, of scripture, of prayer, of service, of community engagement, of generosity, and of witness to not only our growth as disciples, but also as to how our discipleship can transform the world. We’ll do this in the context of worship that will include World Communion Sunday, Children’s Sabbath, the presentation of 3rd grade bibles, Laity Sunday, All Saints Day and much more. You’ll hear from many voices as we travel this way together, and you’ll be invited each week to make a commitment to grow incrementally in your own faith journey in each of these ways. We will explore together what it looks like to live a Real Life, Fully Alive in Christ. We hope you will join us each week as travel this road together in these final weeks before the turn of the liturgical year at Advent.

I think the journey is best summed up in the words of our Welcome Song: “Let’s walk together for a while, and ask where we begin to build a world where love can grow and hope can enter in. To be the hands of healing, and to plant the seeds of peace...”

Grace & Peace,

Pastor Jay

Dewdrops, Rainbows and U2 on Sunday Mornings!

Our Sunday morning children's church programs are offered during 11AM Worship, at which we also offer Nursery care. About 10 minutes into the service, children are invited forward to participate with the Children's Message, then afterward, preschool through 6th graders may transition to their classrooms (see below). Or, families may choose to have children remain in Worship - children's sounds, energy, and emotions are welcome as part of God's joyful noise!

Class	Ages/Grades	Bible Literacy Content
Dewdrops	3 years* - Kindergarten	Children are introduced to the Bible, by being read to from a "storybook Bible" format, following the 3-year lectionary cycle.
Rainbows	Grades 1-3	Children deepen their Biblical understanding by repeating the 3-year lectionary, this time reading a "storybook Bible" for themselves, and occasionally a CEB translation bible with teacher guidance.
U2	Grades 4-6	Children begin to explore a more mature understanding of the 3-year lectionary content, by regularly engaging with a CEB translation bible, and with additional historical and social context.

Parents have flexibility to make the best choice for their child regarding class placement. If your 3 or 4-year-old is more comfortable in the Nursery instead of Dewdrops, if your 4th grader is better served by attending Rainbows, or if your 6th grader is ready to "graduate" U2 and remain in Worship, etc., we support you in these accommodations. Please chat with our Educational Ministry Team!

*3-year-olds attending Dewdrops must be potty-trained, as we do not have appropriate facilities to address diapering needs in this classroom.

Plant Seeds, Grow Love, Harvest Disciples By: Greg Shaw, Stewardship Taskforce

A disciple is a follower of Jesus Christ. As a church of disciples, we are expected to live out the Great Commission, where Jesus instructs us to make disciples of all nations.

How do we do that? Well, let's start by planting seeds. What do seeds need in order to germinate and grow? Good soil comes to mind. Timely watering; not too much, not too little, just right! Young seedlings need cultivation. And might I suggest a big dose of Sun-light! Disciples, young and old, require loving care to grow strong and stay vigorous.

That's what the ministries of Church of the Master provide; a loving and active environment where all are welcome and can be nourished.

The upcoming October and November sermon series will focus on Discipleship, and will conclude with our Consecration Sunday on November 20. On that day, we will ask you to complete a commitment card as an act of stewardship, to express your financial commitment for 2023. Discipleship and stewardship are companion pieces in our Christian way of life. Stewardship is an act of gratitude for all that we have been given by God and generously sharing what we've been given in order to grow God's kingdom.

In advance of Consecration Sunday, you will receive our Narrative Budget booklet that will provide highlights of the ministries that are changing lives and making disciples here at Church of the Master. We hope to demonstrate that our church is that fertile soil where we Plant Seeds, Grow Love, and Harvest Disciples.

United Women in Faith By: Kim Hoessly

Greetings to you all! I'd like to share from Father Gregory Boyle's book, Barking to the Choir. He writes, "I was saying mass at the San Fernando Juvenile Hall. With nearly three hundred detained minors – mostly gang members– a homie reads from Psalm 138. I'm seated, vested, eyes closed, choosing to listen to this kid's proclamation, rather than follow along in the liturgical sheet that rests on my lap. He reads, with an over-abundance of confidence, "The Lord...is EXHAUSTED."... I open my eyes and hurriedly refer to my sheet. It says, "The Lord is exalted", but I think "exhausted" is way better. I'm not sure I want to spend eternity with a God who wants to be exalted, who longs to be recognized and made a big deal of. I would rather hope for a humble God who gets exhausted in delighting over and loving us."

I have to agree. A God who understands exhaustion is a God who understands me and you. Humans who are doing our best, but still, at times, need encouragement to fight our exhaustion. Sisters, as we head into the fall, let us encourage each other, share the load, don't let exhaustion win as we work towards our goal of helping women, children and youth. Don't forget, that includes us. Be community, be part of the Kin-dom. Our local United Women in Faith at times feels that exhaustion at times, but like all the women who came before us, we carry on. Watch Renew and the Sunday Bulletin for updates.

Puerto Rico Needs Our Help (From NewsNet, the e-newsletter of the West Ohio Conference of the UMC)

Since Hurricane Maria in 2017, the people of Puerto Rico have been preparing for the next big storm. Each year on June 1 - the start of the Atlantic hurricane season - stores begin selling out of generators, gas-powered appliances, canned food, and bottled water. Across the island, the Methodist Church of Puerto Rico has not only repaired the damage from Maria, but has also helped churches and communities become more resilient to climate change. Now, five years later, the next big storm has come. Hurricane Fiona, while less powerful than Maria, dumped as much as 31 inches of rain on towns and villages across Puerto Rico. Widespread flooding swept away bridges, damaged homes, stripped pavement off roads, and left millions without drinking water. The electric grid, which took almost a year to fully repair after Maria, is still down for more than half of the island. Already, the Methodist Church of Puerto Rico - under the leadership of newly elected Bishop Lizette Gabriel Montalvo - has begun to assess the damage and assist those in need. But following a hurricane that caused an estimated $10 billion of damage to Puerto Rico alone, they need our help.

Consider what you can do...

PRAY - Pray for the people of Puerto Rico as they suffer yet another collective trauma. Pray for the Methodist Church of Puerto Rico as they help survivors and communities rebuild.

GIVE - Give to UMCOR's U.S. Disaster Response and Recovery fund, 100% of which goes to providing aid on the ground, including immediate relief and long-term recovery.

- Write a check made out to 'West Ohio Conference' with the Advance #901670 in the memo line. Mail to West Ohio Conference, Attn. Dee Stickle-Miner, 32 Wesley Blvd, Worthington, OH 43085.

Give online through the West Ohio Conference website at <https://www.westohioumc.org>. Scroll down and select Disaster Relief, and be sure to choose "U.S. Disaster Response Advance #901670". (cont.)

CHANGE - Our warming atmosphere is contributing to slower, wetter hurricanes like Fiona. Challenge yourself to make one of the changes listed in our Sustainability Guide (Sustainability Booklet \(westhioumc.org\)) and do your part to reduce the impact of our climate crisis.

Youth Bells By: Kim Hoessly

Come join us for Youth Bells! I will offer a 2 week session of bells on Oct. 20 & 27 for beginners and those who would like to refresh their skills. We will begin a 4 week session on Nov. 3 running through Dec. 1 (no rehearsals on Thanksgiving Eve). Youth bells will play in the Advent/Christmas concert on the afternoon of Dec. 4. After the first of the year, we will set up 2 more sessions in Jan/Feb and Feb/Mar.

All youth, grades 6-12, are welcome to join us. Never rung chimes or bells? We are happy to teach you! Contact Kim Hoessly, khoessly@columbus.rr.com or phone/text 614-537-8596 for information and questions.

Give a Bell Program

We know that music offers so much to our ministry and our Handbell/Chime Program is an important part of that worship experience. Besides the beautiful music we can create, the handbell program is something everyone can join in and benefit from greatly. We are offering everyone an opportunity to help us grow this program by purchasing a dedicated bell as part of a new set of Malmark Handbells and completing the fifth octave of chimes. With your help, we can celebrate with music as we never could before.

Let the memory and honor of loved ones ring out...

Each handbell can be personalized to honor or memorialize an individual or group. An inscription will be permanently enclosed in the handbell handle.

Questions? You can contact Kim Hoessly: 614-537-8596 or handbells@chmaster.org for more information.

NANCY DAY VIDEO FILMING

You Are Invited! Nancy Day invites you to participate in one or two music videos!

WHEN AND WHERE!

Saturday, October 15, 1:30. Meeting place: Alum Creek Park Amphitheater

Everyone will meet to organize at the Amphitheater and move to the park areas to video.

Nancy and her videographer, Christo Tsiaras, are looking for a large and diverse group of people for her first song One (Human Race), including different ages, races and cultures, etc. This song is about how we can live harmoniously side by side. It is Nancy's dream to include Otterbein students and alumni, friends and family and members of the community, etc. So feel free to invite your friends and family.

On her first song, One (Human Race), everyone will walk together and lipsync the words to the chorus. The song is already finished and mastered and will be played through a speaker as the video is filmed.

The Lyrics for One (Human Race) are simple:

Verse 1 Verse 2

We are one human race

We are one human race

We are one in this place

We are one in this place

We are one, more than one

We are one, more than one

Yet we are one human race.

Each design has its place.

The second song is called Take me back to Ohio.

In this sweet country song, feel free to consider tossing the football, hanging out and walking together, possibly throwing the frisbee, etc. Ohio State and Otterbein clothing would be great choices to wear for this one! If you have Ohio State Sweatshirts this would be helpful for the lyrics in the chorus.

Please indicate below, by providing your email, that you will be present for the filming of the music videos on Sat Oct 15 at 1:30.

To confirm your participation in the videos follow this link:

<https://forms.gle/ViwASLZ4qfRiZNB9>

Who is Nancy Day?

Nancy, while a student at Otterbein, gave a concert every year of her original music. She wrote all of the string, brass, woodwind, percussion, bass, guitar and vocal parts for each show, featuring other talented students. She also wrote the music for members of the Columbus Symphony, who accompanied her concert at the Scioto River Amphitheater.

Her senior year, featuring 30 students, she performed two nights in Battelle Fine Arts Center, because of the large crowds she drew. Also her senior year she completed her first song collection called Nancy, which included 10 other student musicians.

In 2000 Nancy was chosen as the first Otterbein Alumni to perform as part of the Artist Series. In this concert she featured strings, bassoon, flute, guitar, bass guitar, drums and french horn, and also included the Otterbein Concert Choir and the Children's Choir associated with Otterbein, directed by Amy Chivington. Through the years, Nancy has written the music for five musicals. And most recently, this past July, Nancy was invited to be a performer at the National Women's Music Festival in Wisconsin.

Nancy performs and teaches music for her living today in the Boston, Massachusetts area. Nancy has always followed her calling with her music and since her first album, has written and produced 17 original song collections. You can visit her website: nancydaymusic.com to learn more and view her music videos.

Please be sure to confirm your participation in the video productions using the link to the google form listed above!!

When a child comes out to their family, it often raises many questions for both the child and for the family. For example:

- What does it mean for the family when a child comes out to their parents?
- What does it mean for the parents' relationship to their church?
- What does it mean for the parents' own faith?
- How do parents navigate their own "coming out" after their children have come out to them?
- What is the impact on you and your family and especially your LGBTQ+ child if the congregation you attend is considering disaffiliation from the United Methodist Church or has voted to disaffiliate from the UMC?

The sessions are designed to provide a safe space where questions and concerns can be dealt with openly and honestly.

Wednesdays, Oct. 26, Nov. 2, 9, 16

This session of the class will be held on Zoom this fall. The meetings will begin at 7:00 pm and conclude by 8:30 pm.

If you want to participate in the class, please email Jim at jwaugh3@mac.com. Put "Kids Class" in the Subject line. A few days prior to the class session, you will receive a Zoom invitation from Jim for the sessions.

The Rev. Jim Waugh, retired pastor in the West Ohio Conference, will lead the group. Jim and his wife, Carol, have an adult daughter, Lisa, who came out to them over twenty years ago. Jim just completed a four-year term as the chair of the Parents Reconciling Network Board (a group related to the Reconciling Ministries Network).

If you have questions or need more information, please feel free to email Jim: jwaugh3@mac.com.

Called to Love

Our next in-person meeting will be this Monday, October 17th at 7pm in the Sanctuary! This group seeks to educate ourselves about the experiences of LGBTQ+ persons, and explore our own implicit biases and behaviors to find ways we can grow as individuals and as a church community. Our focus this fall is "Continuing our journey in Ally-ship toward Advocacy" Please contact Cindy Hughes with questions at hughes_cindy@yahoo.com
