ABOUT MASH!

The Maricopa County Sheriff's Office (MCSO) Animal Safe Haven Unit, which is currently located at the former 1st Avenue Jail at 102 W. Madison Street in downtown Phoenix, was first formed in 2001. The old jail was meant to serve as a temporary facility offering care, training and health services for animals seized during lawful actions by MCSO.

Although it is MCSO's intention to transition these animals to caring, loving homes, the way they must take custody of these animals impacts their authority to expedite adoption. "Some animals stay in our care for extended periods of time requiring additional training and lengthy housing," says Maricopa County Sheriff Paul Penzone. "Our facility provides long term care and rehabilitation for animals who have suffered from the most extreme cases of abuse and neglect."

The new and improved MASH facility is being planned for the vacant space near the corners of 27th Avenue and Lower Buckeye in Phoenix. In addition to the updated animal care components the new building will also incorporate a training center, which will provide educational opportunities for the local inmate population on care, compassion and grooming of the animal population.

"Once funded, we will build a state-of-the-art facility that offers the appropriate shelter, design, hygiene, apparatus, structure and social setting to accommodate up to 125 canine and 100 feline occupants"

- SHERIFF PAUL PENZONE
